PREFACE TO 1955 YEAR BOOK

Fellow Compatriots of the Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. This Year Book of 1955, the first since 1903, records the history of our Society and its component chapters, based on data compiled by our officers. It is the answer to a long felt need of a record of the activities, growth and accomplishments of our Society. It spells countless hours of editorial work and effort on the part of our esteemed historian, Floyd G. Hoenstine. It gives me, your President for the year 1955, another opportunity to greet and congratulate you on your privileged membership in our illustrious Pennsylvania Society, and to remind you that it is your participation and interest which has made the Pennsylvania Society always a leader in the National Society in point of size and influence. It gives me an opportunity to express appreciation to the officers and committee members who through the years have given loyal, faithful service to our organization. Many deserve special mention. One above all is Edwin B. Graham, who has served devotedly and constructively as Secretary-Treasurer continuously since December 14, 1939, and who has given such distinguished service in recent years to the National Society as to earn him the rarely bestowed Minute Man Award.

I would be remiss if I did not register hope and prayer that this volume will stir the pride of the members in our organization, will stimulate each and every one to renewed energy and service, and will kindle anew in all of us the spark of patriotic endeavor. Further may this history serve to remind you that S.A.R. and good citizenship are indissolubly bound together; to remind you that S.A.R. as an organization is a foremost guardian of the priceless heritage of the freedoms established by the sacrifices of our forebearers of the American Revolution; to remind you that S.A.R., by word and deed, has been an energetic participant in the guardianship of the national sovereignty of our Republic against formidable subversive influences and socialistic practices. I call attention to some of our important activities; the faithful statewide celebration of the anniversaries of events and of our basic documents; the increasing surveillance in the field of patriotic education to the end that our children shall be taught American history truthfully; the stands that we have taken in matters of national policy; for example in support of the Bricker Amendment designed to protect our sovereignty against improvident executive agreements, and to make the Constitution supreme over any form of international agreement or treaty; against World Federalism and World Government; against conventions in the United Nations covenants that would invalidate the Bill of Rights or the American Constitution, such as the genocide convention; against socialistic practices in government such as socialized medicine.

My fervent hope is that within the next fifty years our Pennsylvania Society will at least have a quintupled membership united in carrying out and promoting a constructive educational program devoted to patriotic Americanism, which will keep our Pennsylvania Society in the forefront of leadership and acclaim in the nation. Praying for our officers and entire membership may God grant His blessing upon our undertakings.

FOREWORD

The publication of a history of our organization will in many ways be beneficial. It is an activity in which many members have contributed their time and talents. All who peruse its pages will learn of the organization's background, its beginning, its accomplishments and its failures, thereby, knowing the past, the officers and members can better plan the future. Much interest has been shown in the outcome of this enterprise and it is hoped that the possession of a copy of this book will exceed the anticipation.

The 1955 Year Book of the Pennsylvania Society is primarily divided into three sections; historical sketches, lineages of past and present members, and an index of surnames.

Throughout the entire preparation of this publication the need for condensing was apparent. The material available is of great historical and genealogical value and unless presented in a concise manner would require several volumes. To conserve space it was found necessary to omit titles wherever possible. Titles change with time and a captain when joining the Society could now be a general and an attorney could now be a judge. The title of doctor could not be distinguished whether medical, dental or divinity.

The Society is fortunate in having well preserved records of the five thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven members who have affiliated since the year 1893. These records contain in many cases lineage for generations previous to the Revolutionary War soldier. The applications also contain detailed accounts of historical events in which the ancestor participated during the Revolutionary War and in many instances give military services in several organizations. A selection was necessary and wherever possible the state or county is included, thereby further indentifying the soldier by giving his place of residence.

The arrangement of the lineage is unique in that no other publication is known to have presented so much genealogical data in a comparative space. Each lineage record is headed by the name of the Revolutionary soldier and his rank and organization. The name of his wife is stated on the line below and each generation that follows is indented to the right. By this method, it was possible to consolidate the lineage of all members who joined the Society through the same Revolutionary ancestor.

Where supplemental applications were filed or where the member mentioned more than one Revolutionary War ancestor, the arrangement selected was to place the name of that ancestor to the left under the corresponding generation. An example of this arrangement is as follows:

Revolutionary Ancestor (Military Service)

His wife

    Their son or daughter

    His or her spouse

Spouse's Revolutionary Ancestor (Military Service)

His wife

    Their grandson or granddaughter

    His or her spouse

        Their Son (Membership No....., Pa. Society)

        His wife

The dates of birth, death and marriages as shown in the applications for membership are given. Where dates were in conflict or apparently incorrect through typographical errors they were omitted.

The Pennsylvania Archives and Heitman's Historical Register of Officers of the Revolutionary War were frequently consulted in order to further identify the military services.

Apologies are extended where it is found that a name or date has been incorrectly stated. Many applications are in free hand and difficult to read and a few application are missing from the files. Where inaccuracies are found it is suggested that a letter be written giving the correct data which will be attached to the application for future reference.

Your historian wishes to express his appreciation to the Board of Management for their confidence in authorizing him to undertake an enterprise of this nature and to the Chapter Historians and others who cooperated in preparing historical sketches and locating data in order to make this publication as complete as possible.

PENNSYLVANIA IN THE REVOLUTION

BY

LEWIS E. THEISS

Past Historian

Pennsylvania Society

Not only was Pennsylvania the geographical keystone in the arch of the American colonies, but she was also the keystone in the revolutionary effort. In many ways she contributed decisively to the progress and success of the war. Actually, the political business of the Revolution was performed almost wholly within the Keystone State.

Probably no colony contributed more in the military way. Not only were Pennsylvania battles fought in the effort to keep the British out of the Philadelphia harbor, but the struggles at the Brandywine and at Germantown were among the major contests of the entire war. And that at Germantown proved to be a big factor in convincing the soldiers that they really could fight, for at one point they had the British on the run. This battle also awoke foreign military powers to the fact that this new and as yet really undisciplined army was something that would have to be reckoned with. Europe knew little or nothing of an army of volunteers, all European armies being composed of hardened and disciplined warriors. In fact, foreign military men had no faith in volunteers.

Actually, it was in Pennsylvania that the patriot army really came into being — at Valley Forge. A main contributing factor in the loss of the battle of the Brandywine was the inability of the raw American troops to maneuver rapidly and in complete unison. Attacked in an unexpected quarter, they were simply not able to form another battle line quickly and completely in a new position. But Valley Forge turned this raw aggregation into a disciplined army. Always we have stressed the sufferings at Valley Forge. There is no question about those sufferings—as unnecessary as they were real. Had the regional farmers had one tenth the patriotism that those freezing, starving soldiers at Valley Forge possessed, that camp would have been weighted down with provisions. The food was there — near at hand. What was lacking was the spirit of devotion to the cause. But in the camp itself the situation was the exact opposite. Day after day, relentlessly and endlessly, under the unswerving admonitions of the determined Von Steuben, the American recruits drilled in the cold and the snow. Before spring came, Washington's men had become an army.

So far as provisions went, Pennsylvania again proved to be the keystone of the Revolution. Without the supplies that came from Penn's Woods, the revolution would almost surely have collapsed. So, in this additional sense, this Commonwealth was truly the keystone.

Let us look at these matters a little more in detail. Harking back to the political angle, we note that the Continental Congress met at Philadelphia — which was then the metropolis and leading city of our country. It was a natural choice, an almost inevitable selection. There had to be a capital somewhere. So quite naturally the keystone in the arch of colonies was selected. It was a most central city. Its size and wealth gave it prestige. It could easily be reached. It was, in the language of today, "a natural."

So the Continental Congress met at Philadelphia. There the ablest men in the colonies — and bear in mind that never in our history, or in the history of any other nation in the world, has such a group of men assembled for political purposes as met here in Philadelphia in the first and second sessions of the Continental Congress. In ability and character they were towering giants.

In Philadelphia they considered the situation carefully and fully. They began to form an organization of the entire country. They tried to arrange for effective cooperation of the several colonies. In Philadelphia was passed the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation, and still later, the Constitution.

When Howe finally broke into Philadelphia, and the Congress had to flee, where did the members go? To another place in Pennsylvania — to Lancaster. But Lancaster was too near to Philadelphia. The eastern part of Pennsylvania was filled with rich Tories. A secret raid by British cavalry could easily have penetrated undetected to Lancaster, even as one did to Paoli at another time. Every Tory in the area would have labored hard to conceal and forward the move. So the Congress left Lancaster. Where did the members go? To still another place in Pennsylvania — to York. So there you have it. Assuredly Pennsylvania was the political keystone of the confederation.

But what about the military aspect of things? At this distance, we often fail to realize the truth about the Revolutionary struggle. A basic fact that we should remember is that we began the War without an army, and did not have one until after Valley Forge. Our original collection of fighting men had been aptly described as "a rabble in arms." And that is exactly what the so-called original army was — a rabble in arms.

Militia officers were elected. A worse situation could not have been devised; for, in order to be chosen as officers, inferior men catered to the rabble. And so the early army officers were, all too often, absolutely unfit. Soldiers in the ranks called their officers by their first names. Privates and officers hobnobbed and caroused together. There was no discipline whatever, no sense of authority, and indeed, no way by which officers could create discipline.

Perhaps the outstanding example of what tragedy this situation could produce is in the case of Oriskany, in which battle a most horrible slaughter resulted when Herkimer's troops ridiculed him to his face, dubbed him a Tory, called him a coward, and in a boastful, flamboyant manner demanded that they march against the enemy at once, instead of waiting for a signal from Fort Stanwix that the troops there would sally out for a rear attack on the approaching foe. So on they marched — straight into an Indian ambush. The bloodiest conflict in American history — numbers considered — resulted.

Well, Valley Forge remedied that. The proof of that statement lies in the battle of Monmouth, which was the first contest after Valley Forge. Had it not been for the despicable action of that double-dyed traitor, General Charles Lee, there is no doubt whatever that Washington would have won that battle in a most striking way. As it was, after Lee had demoralized the American troops by ordering and leading a retreat, Washington dashed up, ordered Lee from the field, reformed the troops — only disciplined troops could have accomplished that — and drove back the British, who were so thoroughly beaten that they stole away in fear in the dead of night.

Nothing contributed more toward the success of the war than the creation of the Rifle Corps. The idea was Washington's. Congress backed him up by creating eight companies of riflemen. Few persons today grasp the significance of this step. The rifle was utterly unknown in New England and but little seen in New York. Minute men and militia at Lexington and Bunker Hill were armed entirely with muskets and fowling pieces. The rifle was a Pennsylvania development, an improvement on the cumbersome, almost-useless rifle brought into the Keystone State by German immigrants. Pennsylvania gunsmiths developed and improved it, until the rifle became the finest weapon in existence. It carried a bullet with unerring accuracy. It did effective execution at twice the range of a musket. It gave its possessor a tremendous advantage over an opponent armed with a musket. From the Pennsylvania border to Maryland and Virginia, the fame of this weapon spread. Morgan's Rifles, created by Washington and known as the Eleventh Virginia, was the corps d'elite of the army. But it was not a Virginia outfit, although there were many Virginians in it. The men from Pennsylvania far outnumbered those from either Virginia or Maryland. We should never forget that it was Timothy Murphy, who, at the express command of Col. Morgan and on the suggestion of Benedict Arnold, shot British General Frazier out of his saddle and turned the tide of battle at Saratoga — the battle that brought us recognition and added help from France.

Up to this time the American army had had a sad time. Outnumbered, hamstrung by a system of short enlistments, with an army all but dissolving just when it was most needed — as on that memorable Christmas at Trenton — Washington fought on with an unshakable determination, a courage, a far vision that even to this day we do not fully appreciate or comprehend. But we all know the outcome.

That outcome, however, would never have been possible had it not been for the part Pennsylvania played in furnishing supplies to the American troops. Neither New England nor the South ever had much surplus food to send to the army. New York for a long time provided most generously. But after Oriskany, when the enraged savages and their even more savage associates, the Tories of New York, repeatedly raided and destroyed the valleys of the Mohawk, the Schoharie, and the upper Hudson, there was little or no food left to send to the patriot armies.

Pennsylvania largely shouldered the burden. From the rich grain fields of the Lancaster, Lebanon, and Cumberland Valleys and from frontier farms along the Susquehanna, food came pouring in to the army. Even distant Wyoming, that was destined for such a horrible end, sent thousands of bushels of wheat to the army. From every little frontier clearing additional bushels of grain came pouring in, and the army was fed.

In Carlisle, in the Cumberland Valley, the patriots created an armory, where guns large and small, ammunition, and other equipment could be stored in supposed safety. Here Hessian prisoners erected a barracks that is used to this day. Thither Pennsylvania furnaces and iron works sent materials they had fashioned for the army.

Again disaster came close. After Burgoyne surrendered at Saratoga, the British lacked sufficient military forces to press the war effectively. What did they do? They offered the Indians generous sums for scalps, and turned the Six Nations loose against the colonists at Wyoming, to commit the most horrible massacre in our history. Butler, the Tory leader at that massacre, reported that his Indians took 227 scalps at Wyoming. Many additional persons lost their lives, unrecorded and unnoticed, when women and children fled through the awful swamps toward distant Easton, many of them dying of hunger or exhaustion in those awful Shades of Death. Wyoming was utterly stripped of inhabitants. A few days later, the West Branch of the Susquehanna was in the same state, when other Indian invaders swept down that branch of the Susquehanna and drove out the last white defender.

This was bad enough. Seemingly the situation couldn't be worse. But it was. Just to the eastward lay the grain fields already mentioned. Now there was nothing to prevent another Indian incursion, which could now sweep on down the Susquehanna and devastate these grain fields in the Cumberland, the Lebanon, and even the Lancaster valleys. There were no settlers left to stop them. Had that occurred, what would have happened to the Revolution? Probably it would have collapsed, starved to death.

But now America had some disciplined troops. And from distant points they came surging into the stricken Susquehanna lands, driving lurking savages back, then carrying the war into the enemy's own country — first in Col. Hartley's Expedition to Tioga Point — now Athens, Pa. — where he burned the Indian towns, ravaged their corn fields, recovered much property stolen at Wyoming, together with some fifty or more head of cattle also taken from the settlers. Then, the next year, came Sullivan, with a great force that swept through the vast Indian empire — practically all of New York State, excepting the Hudson, Mohawk, and Schoharie valleys — burning every Indian town and utterly destroying the Indian agriculture. This was a terrible blow to the British as well as to the Indians, for the latter were cultivating thousands and thousands of acres of corn for the British troops.

It is estimated that Sullivan destroyed 200,000 bushels of corn. He cut down the Indian orchards. He destroyed every Indian habitation, excepting for a tiny few isolated cabins. He drove the Indians back upon the British at Fort Niagara, and on into Canada. The result was that the British, instead of being fed by the Indians, had to feed or try to feed the Indians.

Never again was it possible for any force of Indians to repeat the large-scale invasion that laid Wyoming low. Although small scalping parties could still creep into the American border lands and create some damage, the grain fields to the east were safe, the borderers gradually crept back to their plantations, re-built their burned homes and barns, replanted their fields, and went on producing food for the patriot armies.

History has sadly overlooked this important achievement of General Sullivan. It may be true that he did not do all that it was hoped he would. It is easy enough at this distance to criticize. But we should not forget that parallel case wherein a gallant expedition, led by Edward Braddock, came to indescribable disaster. Sullivan faced a far more difficult task than Braddock did. But he came through the expedition with the loss of no more than forty men—most of whom lost their lives through disobedience to orders by straying beyond the picket lines, for ferocious Indians always lurked in every copse about the American encampments. Sullivan utterly destroyed the Six Nations' Empire. He conquered their territory and gave Uncle Sam a claim to it by right of conquest. To trace all the helpful effects of his invasion of the Six Nations' Empire would be a difficult matter. But in ways innumerable this conquest of the British Allies contributed to the winning of the war.

One of the factors in that success, which is seldom mentioned, was the provisioning of Sullivan's army. There Sullivan was, vainly waiting at Wyoming for necessary supplies that should have reached him weeks before. But to get them there was a task almost superhuman. For practically every pound of the thousands of tons of provisions needed by Sullivan's men at Wyoming—some 3,500 with 1,500 more to join him later—had to be brought up the Susquehanna from the neighborhood of Harrisburg to Wyoming—a full 100 miles or more—in heavy batteaux in midsummer, when the Susquehanna was a mere trickle. The struggle to get those supplies up that shrunken river is one of the forgotten epics of the Revolution.

There is more—much more—that could be said about the part that Pennsylvania played in the Revolution. These things merely are highlights, but from beginning to end, the folks in Penn's Woods—despite the great number of Tories among them—did put their shoulders to the wheel, did step into the breach, and did labor unceasingly to win the war. Truly we do well to call this Commonwealth the Keystone State. It was just that.

THE NATIONAL SOCIETY

SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

BY MYER SOLIS-COHEN

Past President, Pennsylvania Society

THE NATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION had its origin in a National Convention of the Sons of the Revolution, called by a committee of the three men who organized the New Jersey Society of the Sons of the Revolution, of which William C. McDowell was chairman. The committee invited representatives of all the State Societies of the Sons of the Revolution, and of those which were to be formed by sons of Revolutionary patriots everywhere, to attend a meeting in Fraunces's Tavern in New York City on April 30, 1889, to organize a National Society of the Sons of the Revolution. Notices were inserted in all the leading papers of the United States. All the existing State Societies, except that of New York, sent delegates, as did the Sons of Revolutionary Sires, which had been proposed by a group in San Francisco, October 22, 1875 and organized June 26, 1876. The Governors of six states that had no societies appointed delegates. Without the Societies of New York, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia participating, the Convention organized as the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution and on May 1 adopted a Constitution. Eight State Societies immediately changed their names to Sons of the American Revolution and The Sons of Revolutionary Sires became the California Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. During the next several months two State Societies followed suit and fifteen new State Societies were formed.

THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION came into existence on December 18, 1875 when John Austin Stevens met with some friends in New York City to form a Society to which all male descendants of Revolutionary soldiers would be eligible. A Constitution was adopted January 15, 1867 and a call was issued for an organization meeting on the following February 22; but so few responded that, after organizing, nothing else was done until seven years later. At a "turtle feast" in Fraunces' Tavern on December 4, 1883, where some twenty-five or thirty Revolutionary descendants were celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of Washington's farewell address to his officers, THE NEW YORK SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION was organized.

In Philadelphia on April 3, 1888 the PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION was organized and on March 11, 1889 the DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA SOCIETY was organized as an Auxiliary Branch of the New York Society.

On April 9, 1890 delegates from these three Societies met in Washington and established the GENERAL SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE REVOLUTION, with State Societies equal and no longer Auxiliary Branches of the New York Society. This stimulated the formation of new State Societies.

THE SOCIETY OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, which was organized September 1, 1876 in San Francisco as an auxiliary of the Sons of Revolutionary Sires, has no connection with the present Daughters of the American Revolution.

When at its first National Congress April 30, 1890 the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution passed a resolution excluding women, who were being admitted by some State Societies, the resentment of female descendants of Revolutionary patriots was aroused. Mrs. Florence Adams Darling and Miss Eugenia Washington discussed the formation of a SOCIETY OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION. Senator John Sherman, in addressing the Sons of the American Revolution in July, referred to woman's part in the Revolution, which prompted Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood to write a letter to the Washington Post entitled "Women Worthy of Honor", in which she decried "one-sided patriotism." The following day Miss Mary Desha offered to co-operate with her in organizing a Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Soon Mrs. Ellen H. Walworth and others joined them. A week later William C. McDowell of the Sons of the American Revolution in a letter in the same paper offered to organize National and State Societies of the Daughters of the American Revolution. His call was answered by Miss Desha, Mrs. Hannah McL. Wolff, Miss Washington, and Mrs. Louise Walcott Knowlton, all of Washington, and Mrs. Roger A. Pryor of New York. Mrs. Lockwood and Mrs. Darling had many meetings during September, writing a Constitution, based on that of the Sons of the American Revolution, and distributing application blanks, which Mrs. Darling had had printed. Other groups were similarly employed independently. All were aided by members of the Sons of the American Revolution and were soliciting members. While all the Constitutions provided for lineal descent from a Revolutionary patriot, in the final draft, on the recommendation of Wilson L. Gill, the organization was upon a broad national plan, rather than into State organizations.

At the organization meeting on October 11, 1890, called by Mrs. Darling and presided over by Mr. McDowell, the former gave the basis of work, read the order of business and announced the names of the officers and committees, which were confirmed. The Constitution was read and adopted, and Officers and a Board of Management were elected.

At the third meeting the Constitution was changed to admit descendants of a mother of a patriot, which Mrs. Darling, vice president in charge of organization, vigorously opposed on constitutional grounds and refused to recognize. Friction between Mrs. Darling and the Board developed, the former denying the authority of the Board she had named, especially to change the Constitution, and refusing to submit to its control. The Board, realizing the impossibility of conducting business properly under such conditions, finally in June, 1891 removed Mrs. Darling from office.

The clause permitting descent from the mother of a patriot, however, remained a matter of controversy and was discussed at meetings and in the American Monthly Magazine until its deletion by a vote of 55 to 18 at the second Continental Congress in February, 1893.

While a number of chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution had voted to delete the "Mother of a Patriot" clause before the Constitution was finally amended, the New York Chapter had decided to withdraw from the Daughters of the American Revolution if the change was not made by August 1, 1891.

On May 15, 1891 this chapter had invited Mrs. Darling to join it and four days later changed its name to the Darling Chapter. The members of this chapter and of the Harlena and Long Island Chapters objected strenuously not only to the disputed clause but also to the black balling of applicants who were not considered socially acceptable. These chapters finally withdrew from the Daughters of the American Revolution and were organized by Mrs. Darling into the SOCIETY OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION on state lines at a meeting on August 20, 1891 at the residence of Mrs. Anna Mersereau (Mrs. Edward P.)

Steers, who was made President General. The word "General" was inserted before "Society" in 1924 and changed to "National" in 1927.

At the fourth Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution in February, 1895, Mrs. Daniel S. Lathrop proposed that the Daughters of the American Revolution form a society of young people who would be ready in a few years to enter the ranks of the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution and to take their places. The members voted to sponsor such a society, to be called the CHILDREN OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, and at a meeting of the Board of Management the following April a Constitution was adopted, placing the Children of the American Revolution under the control and direction of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Girls up to eighteen and boys up to twenty-one to be eligible for membership.

The National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution was incorporated by Act of Congress of the United States of America on June 9, 1906, and approved by Theodore Roosevelt, then President of the United States.

The National Society is authorized to issue charters to State Societies which in turn issue charters to chapters located within their states. The affairs of the National Society are administered by a board of National Trustees, composed of the General Officers, all living Past Presidents General, and one member from each State Society.

The Pennsylvania Society, since its organization on November 23, 1893, has been honored by having the privilege of sponsoring four National Congresses and of having two distinguished members elected to the office of President General.

The first visitation by the national officers and delegates was on May 1, 1901, when they assembled at the Hotel Schenley, Pittsburgh, for their deliberations. The National Congress met in Philadelphia in 1905 and returned in 1926 during the sesquicentennial celebration of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. This session was held in Independence Hall, making the gathering one to be long remembered by those in attendance.

The National Congress was again held in Pennsylvania in 1944 when it met at Harrisburg. An invitation to meet in Pittsburgh in 1958 has been extended to the National organization to participate in the celebration of the bicentennial of the building of Fort Pitt.

The Presidents General from Pennsylvania were James Denton Hancock and Charles Bunn Shaler. In recognition of their many years of service to the organization; National, State and Chapter, short biographical sketches are herewith presented.

James Denton Hancock, L.L.D., the President General in 1904, an attorney, residing in Franklin, Pennsylvania, was born in Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, June 9, 1837, a son of James Hancock and Mary Perkins. His mother's Revolutionary War ancestor was killed by the Indians in the Massacre of Wyoming, July 6, 1777. He served as president of the Pennsylvania Society during the years 1911 to 1914 inclusive.

Charles Bunn Shaler was unanimously elected President General at the Minneapolis Congress on May 26, 1948 and died December 2, 1948, before completing his term of office. He was a resident of Pittsburgh and served as president of the Pittsburgh Chapter in 1944, and of the Pennsylvania Society during 1945 and 1946. He was given this distinction because of his devoted service to the Society from 1937 to 1948, by which twelve new chapters and over one thousand new members were gained for the Society. He was born in New Washington, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on January 28, 1884, a son of Lewis John Shaler and Margaret Sarah Bunn.

The objects of the Society are to perpetuate the memory of the men who, by their services or sacrifices during the war of the American Revolution, achieved the Independence of the American people. Those qualified for membership include any man of the age eighteen years or over, a citizen of good repute in his community and the lineal descendant of an ancestor who aided or rendered active service in the cause of American Independence.

The National Society through its deliberations at its Congresses and the work of its officers and committees strives to preserve our form of government and to advance the welfare of its people. To this end publications are issued for distribution to its members and the general public.

The Society's headquarters are located at 1227 16th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., from where its quarterly magazine "SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION" is issued, which presents an account of the reports and activities of the National organization, the State Societies and the Chapters.

The activities of the Sons of the American Revolution are promoted by the National, State, and local officers, and through committees, in accordance with the policies adopted at the National Congress and State Meetings.

The principal activities at the present time include:

- I. The acquisition of evidence which has been furnished the Congress of the United States in support of "A Bill of Grievances", a petition for an investigation of infiltration of Socialistic and Communistic propaganda into our public school system.
- II. The defense of the sovereignty of the United States against attempts to undermine our Republican form of government and our Constitution.
- III. The distribution of facsimile copies of the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights and the Constitution, to public schools.
- IV. The encouragement of the observance of such patriotic anniversaries as: Bill of Rights Day, Constitution Day, Washington's Birthday, Benjamin Franklin's Birthday, Flag Day, Independence Day, and others of special significance.
- V. To acquaint the membership on the status of all proposed and pending legislation effecting the immigration laws of our nation.
- VI. The presentation of medals and awards by State Societies and Chapters, including Good Citizenship, Reserve Officers Training Corps, Constructive Citizenship, and The Minute Man Award.

The officers of the National Society include the following members from the Pennsylvania Society; Louis J. Heizmann, vice president general, and Edwin B. Graham, executive committeeman.

The President General, Edgar Williamson, Jr., of Newark, N. J., was elected at the Sixty-fifth Congress held in Chicago, Ill., May 23-25, 1955, and the Executive Secretary of the National Society is Harold L. Putman.

THE PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY

EDWIN B. GRAHAM

Secretary

The Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the American Revolution was organized at Pittsburgh, November 23, 1893, four years after the organization of the National Society in New York City on April 30, 1889.

The earliest reference to interest in the forming of a Pennsylvania Society is found in THE MAGAZINE-FIRST TRIANNUAL CONGRESS of July 17, 1893, that "About twenty members of the District of Columbia Society, residents in Pennsylvania, are organizing a Society in the Western part of the Keystone State."

An organization of the descendants of the American Revolution had previously been formed in the eastern part of the state entitled the Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the Revolution, and continue to this date with but two chapters; Lehigh Chapter No. 1, at Allentown and Lancaster Chapter No. 2, at Lancaster, while others are members-at-large of the Pennsylvania Society, Sons of the Revolution, with headquarters located in Philadelphia, Pa. Although various efforts have been made through the years to unite the two organizations into one, such efforts have been unsuccessful.

At the time of organizing the Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the American Revolution in Pittsburgh no chapters of this organization existed in Pennsylvania and the location of its headquarters and center of activities was principally in Western Pennsylvania.

The names of the charter members who became the Society's first officers are as follows; William A. Herron, president; Howard Morton, senior vice president; Thomas S. Brown, secretary; John C. Porter, treasurer; Benjamin Page, historian. Other members elected to the Board of Management included; Joseph D. Weeks, Alfred E. Hunt, Hugh Hamilton, Roger Sherman, Albert J. Logan, Oliver O. Page, Mansfield A. Ross and Elisha G. Patterson.

The annual meetings of the Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the American Revolution were held in Pittsburgh each year on or near Washington's Birthday. At the meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce Building in Pittsburgh on February 22, 1937, an amendment to the Constitution and By-Laws was proposed by the Valley Forge Chapter to change the time of meetings from Washington's birthday to the last week in October.

This amendment was adopted and subsequently a second annual meeting was held that year at the Fort Pitt Hotel in Pittsburgh on October 25. The Honorable John S. Fisher, former Governor of Pennsylvania, continued to serve as president of the Society during the years that marked the change in dates of annual meetings.

As chapters were organized and the activities became statewide it was considered proper to hold the annual meeting elsewhere than in Pittsburgh and on October 31, 1938, the annual meeting took place at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, in charge of John S. Fisher, the Society's president, when officers were elected to serve for the year 1939.

At the Clearfield meeting plans were perfected to have representation from each local chapter on the Board of Management, and also to have the annual meetings held in various cities and different sections of the state each year. The latter plan was not put into effect until the year 1948 when the Society held its annual meeting in the Nittany Lion Inn at State College.

The following record indicates the date, town, and meeting place of annual meetings since the organization of the Society with the name of the president elected at each annual meeting:

AMBRIDGE CHAPTER

AMBRIDGE, PA.

(Inactive)

The Society's Board of Management received an application at their meeting of July 10, 1924, requesting permission to organize a chapter at Ambridge to be known as the Ambridge Chapter, to which authorization was granted.

The following officers were elected at a meeting held at Ambridge on July 10, 1924: George H. Kelley, president; H. B. Morrison, vice president; Lauren Thompson, secretary-treasurer; F. L. Dudley, registrar; R. F. Ball, Jr., historian.

This chapter was named for the town of Ambridge, in Beaver County, which owes its existence to the American Bridge Company, who in 1901 purchased land from the Harmony Society on which it built its plant in 1902. When the Pennsylvania Railroad Company established a station at this place in 1903 it received the name Ambridge from Am. Bridge Co., the abbreviated designation of this industrial concern. When incorporated in 1905, the borough included the old village of Economy and the new town of Ambridge.

The names of the charter members were as follows:

Richmond F. Ball, Jr.,	Frank R. McCabe
Thomas F. Brastow	Harvey R. McMillin
C. Allyn Brown	Floyd Raymond McNees
Frederic L. Dudley	Dr. Albert N. Mellott
John H. Hogrefe	Harry B. Morrison
Arch D. Johnson	Samuel R. Morrison
George H. Kelley	Hon. Frank E. Reader
John E. Kelley	Harley L. Sairs
Wm. Warren Littell	Lauren Thompson

Apparently George H. Kelley was the only member to serve this chapter as president as his name continued to appear in the records as president.

The charter granted the Ambridge Chapter was revoked by the Society on June 10, 1937, and reorganized June 15, 1939 as the General Anthony Wayne Chapter, with headquarters at Beaver Falls.

BLAIR COUNTY CHAPTER

ALTOONA, PA.

W. RAY METZ

Chapter Historian

Interest in the formation of a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution existed in the Blair County area as early as 1930 when a chapter was formed with headquarters at Altoona. This chapter was named the Logan Chapter but did not continue active for many years. Becoming delinquent in the payment of dues, the charter was revoked.

Through the efforts of Charles B. Shaler, Chairman of the New Chapters Committee of the state organization, interest was aroused through the support of a few members who held membership-at-large or with other chapters, so that a meeting was called for a formal organization. This meeting was held December 13, 1946, at the Penn Alto Hotel, Altoona, in charge of Charles B. Shaler of Pittsburgh, with twenty representative citizens present who elected Morris W. Hazel as president and George S. Fleck as secretary-treasurer.

A meeting to further the organization was held at the Penn Alto Hotel on January 7, 1947, when additional chapter officers were elected as follows: S. Palmer Carter, first vice president; Joseph R. Holliday, second vice president; W. Ray Metz, third vice president; Floyd G. Hoenstine, genealogist; John S. Seeds, historian; J. Foster Meck, chancellor; J. Howard Tobias, chaplain; Charles E. Torrance, associate chaplain; Charles A. Faris, registrar; and members of the board of management: John E. Trego, Harry A. Jacobs, John McAfee, John R. Hunter, T. William Tobias, Joseph D. Findley, Robert C. Wilson, William A. Whittaker, and Donald M. Yarnall.

The name selected was the Blair County chapter to establish its geographical location in the state and to commemorate the name of John Blair after whom the county was named, being the only county in the state to be named in honor of a resident. John Blair (1767-1832) was the son of Thomas Blair who settled in this area as early as 1785, coming from Franklin county where he contributed to the cause of the American Revolutionary War. His son, John Blair, was a prominent citizen during his life, contributing to the development of this area, being active in establishing the Huntingdon, Cambria and Indiana turnpike and the selection of the Juniata Valley for the Pennsylvania Canal with its terminal at Hollidaysburg, and its connection at Johnstown by the Allegheny Portage Railroad.

The chapter's institution dinner was held in the Logan Room, Penn Alto Hotel, on January 27, 1947, when the chapter officers were formerly installed by Glenn E. Thomson, past president of the Pennsylvania Society and a member of the Susquehanna chapter. The speaker for the occasion was Honorable D. Emmert Brumbaugh of Claysburg, Pa., Pennsylvania's secretary of banking. A number of prominent officials of the Sons of the American Revolution, the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Children of the American Revolution, were in attendance.

An application dated May 10, 1930, was received by the Society for the granting of a charter to a group of seventeen prospective members residing at Williamsport, Lycoming County, which was granted June 12 of the same year.

The chapter was organized July 31, 1930, with the election of the following officers, to wit; Barton K. Huntington, president; Samuel H. Humes, vice president; W. U. Mussina, corresponding secretary; C. Stewart Coryell, recording secretary; Charles W. Hill, treasurer; W. T. Hunt, chaplain; Thomas W. Lloyd, historian; and LaRue C. Shempp; sergeant-at-arms.

The presentation of the charter and the institution of the chapter was held on Constitution Day, September 17, 1930, with Thomas Stephen Brown presiding.

The names of the charter members are not available.

This chapter was named in honor of John Brady, a son of Hugh Brady of the Cumberland Valley. He was born in 1733, served as a Captain during the French and Indian War, and in 1776 moved to Muncy, where he built a half-fortified residence, afterwards called "Brady's Fort". He served as a Captain in the 12th Regiment of the Pennsylvania Line during the Revolution and was killed by Indians on April 11, 1779, from ambush while on his way from Samuel Wallis' place to his own home, Fort Brady, in the present town of Muncy. The Indians shot him out of his saddle but ran off without scalping him.

According to existing records the only member to serve the John Brady Chapter as president was Barton K. Huntington.

Failing to collect per capita dues and to continue active the Society's Board of Management on March 8, 1934, took action to cancel the charter and so advised the chapter.

Interest in the formation of a chapter was renewed with the organization of the Tiadaghton Chapter in Williamsport, Lycoming County, in June of 1951.

CAMBRIA CHAPTER

Chapter Historian

Interest in the formation of a chapter at Johnstown remained dormant following the revocation of the charter for the Johnstown Chapter in 1934, until the year 1946 when through the efforts of Charles B. Shaler, Chairman of the Society's New Chapters' committee interest was again aroused.

A meeting to organize a chapter was held in the home of the 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux in Johnstown on January 23, 1947, in charge of Charles B. Shaler, with the following temporary officers elected; Charles G. Speck, president, and C. N. Gould, secretary.

A second meeting was held at the YMCA on February 13, 1947, to further the organization, when officers were elected and the name Cambria was selected as the Chapter's designation. The officers elected were: Charles G. Speck, president; Marlin B. Stephens, first vice president; George Hay, second vice president; W. E. The name of the chapter designates the county in which Johnstown, its principal city, is located. Its membership is not limited to the vicinity of its headquarters but includes the entire county. Cambria County was formed in 1804 and derived its name from an ancient poetic name for Wales, "The Land of the Cymry or Cumbri," a word interpreted as meaning "compatriot."

The institution dinner was held at the Fort Stanwix Hotel, Johnstown, on March 3, 1947, with Glenn E. Thomson, a former president of the Pennsylvania Society, as installing officer and with Honorable Allen L. Oliver, president general of the National Society, as the speaker.

CONOCOCHIEAGUE CHAPTER

CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

Chapter Historian

The Pennsylvania Society took action on February 3, 1947, to establish a chapter in the Cumberland Valley, following conferences between Charles B. Shaler, president of the Society; John N. Todd of the Harris Ferry Chapter, William A. Thompson also of the Harris Ferry chapter and local eligible members. This chapter succeeded a previously existing chapter called the Rocky Spring Chapter which became inactive in 1934.

A pre-organization meeting was held at the Washington Hotel in Chambersburg on February 17, 1947, followed by the institution dinner at the same place on March 27, 1947, when temporary officers were elected including Henry E. Luhrs as president and Daniel Heefner as secretary-treasurer. The installing officer was Glenn E. Thomson a past president of the Society. The speaker for the occasion was Honorable Edmund Culbertson Wingerd, president of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and president judge of the Franklin County Courts. Many distinguished guests were present representing the Society, other chapters and organizations, totaling about two hundred in attendance.

At a meeting held on June 25, 1947, the following officers were elected to serve until the annual meeting in December, namely: Henry E. Luhrs, president; Luther L. Lafferty, vice president; and William Smith Thompson, secretary-treasurer.

The name selected for the chapter, Conococheague, is an Indian name and in their language meant "Indeed a long way." They had reference to the long winding stream that drains the main central part of Franklin County. The founders of the chapter felt that since the Conococheague region covers the chapter territory and is one of the most interesting parts of the historic Cumberland Valley, it should have that name instead of a place or family name. From the time of the Indian occupation, through the thrilling experience of the French and Indian War, the Revolution and Civil War, the Conococheague region in Franklin County occupied a most prominent place.

The names of the charter members are as follows:

Efforts are made to co-operate with the Daughters of the American Revolution and the county officials in charge of veterans' affairs to the end that all graves of Revolutionary War participants may be properly identified and marked. Instead of providing floral wreaths upon the death of a chapter member a bronze Sons of the American Revolution member grave marker is presented to the family of the deceased for on the grave.

A mimeographed NEWS LETTER is issued prior to each meeting and copies mailed to each member or invited guest calling attention to events of the chapter and mentioning items of program for the coming meeting. The reverse side of this letter carries the names of the chapter officers for the current year and a complete list of members as of the beginning of the year, grouped according to their post office address.

Quarterly meetings are held each year; namely; near the date of Washington's Birthday at Chambersburg, on or near Flag Day at the Waynesboro Country Club, on or near Constitution Day at Mercersburg, and an annual business meeting (also designated as Bill of Rights Day) at Greencastle on the first Wednesday of December.

CONTINENTAL CHAPTER

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

BAYARD OSTHAUS

Chapter Historian

After the highly successful National Convention of the Pennsylvania Society, Sons of the American Revolution, which was held in Philadelphia during the Sesqui-Centennial year, 1926, a group of Germantown Compatriots, all members of the Philadelphia Chapter, decided at the suggestion of Walter Gabell to hold a separate meeting November 23, 1927, at the Union League in Philadelphia. It was at this meeting that the Continental Chapter was founded. The name, Continental, was thought to be most appropriate because of the historic Colonial and Revolutionary background of Germantown and the fierce battles fought between the Continental and British Armies during the Revolutionary War.

The first official meeting of the Chapter was held December 12, 1927, at the Bellevue Stratford Hotel, Philadelphia. L. Napoleon Boston was elected president; Charles M. Irwin, vice president; J. Alfred Coxe, secretary; William B. Vrooman, treasurer; Pierce M. Gabell, registrar; Hugh D. Scott, historian, and Joseph Fort Newton, chaplain. The Board of Governors was established at this meeting and the following were chosen: Walter Gabell, Sr., Nelson M. Brinkerhoff, Hobart Hankins, J. Harry Mitchell and Edward T. Alexander.

The charter members of the Continental Chapter were:

Edward T. Alexander
L. Napoleon Boston
Nelson M. Brinkerhoff
J. Alfred Coxe
Walter Gabell, Sr.

Hobart Hankins

It was resolved during 1935 that the Continental Chapter approve a legislative measure proposed by A. R. Raff and introduced in Congress that one of the city's most prized shrines, Carpenters' Hall, the meeting place of the first Continental Congress, be made the central structure in a small park fronting on Chestnut Street and on Fourth Street and that old structures surrounding the building be razed.

In 1936 the Chapter decided to take an active interest in promoting patriotism among the school children of Philadelphia by awarding Sons of the American Revolution Medals to students in some selected public schools for first, Good Citizenship, and second, the best essay on some patriotic subject.

The Chapter erected, in 1937, a memorial tablet at 708 Chestnut Street which was originally occupied by one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence named Ingersoll, and later by John M. Dallas, Vice President of the United States.

In 1938, the Chapter decided to affiliate itself with Germantown and thereby became a Germantown Chapter. In that year the Chapter participated in the opening ceremonies of the Vernon House, made a trip to the Brandywine Battlefields, and arranged for a pilgrimage of Germantown on Armistice Day, November 11. A letter was received from the president of the San Diego Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, concerning National Citizenship Day as a day to be set apart each year for the recognition of those who have become American citizens that year. The secretary was instructed to write the San Diego Chapter, as well as the State and National Society, commending the proposal as a suitable objective of our Society. The Annual Chapter meeting was actually initiated that year and was held on the third Monday of January, 1939, at the Germantown Cricket Club.

In 1939 the following resolution was passed regarding proper representation of the Sons of the American Revolution on The Valley Forge Park Commission, The Washington's Crossing Commission, and other bodies of a similar patriotic and historic nature: "RESOLVED, that Continental Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, respectfully recommends to Hon. Arthur H. James, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for appointment to The Valley Forge Park Commission, The Washington's Crossing Commission, and other bodies of a similar patriotic and historic nature the following persons: Jacob E. Cope of The Valley Forge Chapter; Albert C. Brand, Continental Chapter, and Herman W. Johnson, Philadelphia Chapter.

During 1940 and 1941 new By-Laws were proposed and approved. A trip was arranged for the purpose of marking the graves of Revolutionary soldiers, specifically for the ancestors of our Chapter Members in or around Chester County; each descendant was asked to read a brief resume of the ancestor at the grave. Boy Scout Troop No. 1 accepted an offer to present a citizenship medal to the boy they might select. The Germantown Boys Club also accepted one of the medals as well as the Wissahickon Boys Club. Five medals were awarded that year. It was also decided to make an annual award to the Boys Club in any manner which seemed most feasible. A very successful trip was made to the site of the Battle of the Crooked Billet at Hatboro, Pennsylvania.

In 1942 an excursion trip was taken to Valley Forge and Compatriot Solis-Cohen delivered an oration there on "What America Is Fighting For." The committee who journeyed to Williamsburg, Va., brought back suggestions for increasing membership. There were various ideas about a dinner meeting in the future with the Daughters of the American Revolution, wherein an invitation for new members could be presented.

During the years 1943-44, it was suggested that the Chapter take a definite stand in assisting the peace plans to follow after the war, and a number of forums on post-war problems were sponsored. It was also brought out that in the future when giving the Pledge of Allegiance, the hand shall not be extended, but shall remain over the heart. A letter was sent to the Mayor asking that he not permit the tearing down of the Head House at Second and Market Streets. It was decided to purchase service bars for the members and that the Chapter remit dues of members in the services. It was also moved that the Chapter become a sustaining member of Upsala. It is interesting to note that the Chapter's colors were in the line of procession at the celebration of the Battle of Germantown at Market Square Presbyterian Church. On Constitution Day, September 17, 1943, the Chapter held a joint celebration at Independence Hall with the Philadelphia Chapter Sons of the American Revolution, other patriotic, fraternal, military and historical organizations and the City of Philadelphia, at which Governor Martin was Chairman and Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio delivered the address. Furthermore, about this time the Chapter offered the assistance of its members to the F. B. I., as civilians, in preserving the internal security of the United States. It was addressed by an official of the F. B. I. and its members served as Minute Men ready whenever called upon.

Again in September, 1944, the Chapter joined the Philadelphia Chapter Sons of the American Revolution and the City of Philadelphia in celebrating Constitution Day at Independence Hall.

In 1945-46 the Chapter had charge of the Germantown and Chestnut Hill Celebration for "I Am An American Day", with a speaker and a dinner following for members of the Chapter. The Chapter made a pilgrimage to Valley Forge Battle Field, and Myer Solis-Cohen arranged for a broadcast to be made by President Worrall on Bill of Rights Day.

A pilgrimage was made to historic Freehold, New Jersey, where the members went over the Monmouth Battlefield and again heard the story of Molly Pitcher. The annual dinner was held at the Germantown Cricket Club on February 2, 1946, and the Honorable Eugene C. Bonniwell was the speaker. At the annual meeting on February 7, 1947, Colonel Jay Cooke was the speaker of the evening.

During 1947-48 it was decided to award medals to the seventeen members from our Chapter who served in World War II, and that the awarding of the medals be done on April 11 at the Vernon House. The Evening Bulletin newspaper furnished the Chapter with two year books suitably bound; one copy was presented to the Library of Congress, and the other to our State Headquarters at Pittsburgh. Three copies of the historical documents were ordered for presentation to schools.

On June 5, 1948, the Chapter acted as hosts at the various pre-Revolutionary houses of Germantown which were open to the public that day. On Memorial Day the Chapter, with appropriate ceremonies, erected Revolutionary markers on the graves of seven soldiers buried in the Mikveh Israel Spruce Street Cemetery.

During 1949 and 1950 the Chapter was co-sponsor of Town Meetings of the World Affairs Council in Germantown and again furnished members to act as aides at the Historic Houses open during Germantown Week. The Annual Bill of Rights Day Luncheon was held December 14, 1950, and the group was addressed by Judge Robert V. Bolger.

In 1951 the Chapter sponsored the meeting held by the World Affairs Council that year. Also, the Chapter was once more called upon by the Historical Society to "man" the historical homes in Germantown during Germantown Week. The Annual Banquet was held January 20, 1951, at the Germantown Cricket Club, with Ivan H. Peterman as the speaker. On June 12, 1951, the Chapter held its Annual Flag Day Luncheon, which was addressed by Judge Edwin O. Lewis, past president, Pennsylvania Society, Sons of the American Revolution. Revolutionary markers were placed on six more graves in the Mikveh Israel Spruce Street Cemetery on July 1. On December 14, 1951, the annual meeting and Bill of Rights Day Luncheon took place at the University Club, with an address by Frederick D. Garman, retiring president of the City Council of Philadelphia.

The Annual Banquet was held January 26, 1952, with guest speaker and travel pictures. A meeting was held at the Vernon House consisting of a panel on the subject of the United Nations Charter versus the United States Constitution, with speakers on both sides of the question as to whether there was a basic conflict. A Washington's Birthday celebration was held at Independence Hall, a spring pilgrimage was made to New Castle, Pa., and a Forum Meeting held in the fall.

The Annual Banquet for 1953 was held at Alden Park Manor, with the speaker being Miss Bess Howard.

An international flavor was given to the Annual Banquets of the Chapter in 1954 and 1955. In the former year, Dr. You Chan Young, Ambassador from Korea to the United States was the guest and principal speaker. In 1955, the guest of honor was Jose Luis Cruz-Salazar, Ambassador from Guatemala. In both cases, the ambassadors who came to Philadelphia from Washington, D. C., were accompanied by members of their families, who also were guests of the Chapter.

In September, 1955, a Constitution-Citizenship Day luncheon was held at which Judge Edward J. Griffiths spoke on the drafting and ratification of the Constitution. The Chapter joined the Germantown Historical Society in November for a meeting and was addressed by Mr. Edwin Wolf, Curator of the Library Company of Philadelphia, on "Sketches of Philadelphia Jewish History." In December, in connection with the annual meeting, a Smoker and Stag Mixer was held at which Tom Moorehead, Sports Director of WFIL TV and WFIL Radio spoke on "The Human Side of Sports."

A petition containing the names of ten residents of the city of York was presented to the Board of Management at their meeting of March 10, 1949, where upon favorable action was taken to authorize the organization of a chapter, which would stimulate interest in the work of the Society.

As early as February 15, 1949 a petition was drawn up and signed by members of the society who were affiliated with chapters located in other towns or members at large, but being unable to attend meetings and other functions, they along with eligible members residing in York took the preliminary steps to establish a new chapter at York.

Annual activities consist of:

- I. A joint, traditional dinner meeting composed of Daughters of the American Revolution and Sons of the American Revolution, including spouses and guests, is a yearly event of this organization. These gatherings are high-lighted by notable speakers of outstanding repute, who present historical and patriotic lectures of a nature potentially interesting to a group of this kind.

II. A permanent committee is maintained for the purpose of conducting a thorough survey of school books and literature in an attempt to bring to public attention and censor, too, any writings that are not in the best American interests and traditions.

III. Endeavoring to alert area citizens to the privilege of the vote, through direct newspaper advertisement and mailing of 10,000 cards direct to all registered voters, is a relevant part of our functional activities. No political or party issues are mentioned. This is an effort for Community, County, State, and National benefit.

IV. Program of welcome and fellowship at the induction of new citizens is achieved through a brief talk and the presentation of high-grade facsimiles of the Constitution and Bill of Rights.

V. Four to six dinner membership meetings are held which are attended by wives and guests. A guest speaker is provided for the occasion, whose topic is adequately appropriate and enteraining to the listeners. It usually is of historical value or on a current subject with historical significance or future effects on same. The dinner is of moderate cost, usually held in a private room in a local restaurant.

The special activities consist of:

I. The promotion and distribution of the booklet "The Challenge," conceived and edited by Dr. R. S. Anderson of the Erie Chapter. This booklet is a timely presentation of how, why and where the Sons of the American Revolution is going. Over 2,000 copies of this booklet were requested and purchased by Sons of the American Revolution Chapters all over the Country. A nominal charge to cover printing and mailing was the only cost to receive the publication.

II. The Bricker Amendment received special attention by the Erie Chapter. It was ably discussed and explained by W. Pitt Gifford at a membership-guest dinner meeting. Petitions for favorable action on this amendment were circulated and made available for further circulation outside the membership of the Sons of the American Revolution, Erie Chapter.

III. Several membership-guest dinner meetings were held where speakers stressed the Patriotism theme. These meetings were spaced at timely intervals at or near a date of national importance or remembrance.

The names of members who have served as president throughout the life of the Erie Chapter are: 1940 and 1941, C. Herman Grose; 1942, Arthur C. Vicary; 1943, J. Elmer Reed; 1944, John C. ## FORT BEDFORD CHAPTER

BEDFORD, PA.

(Inactive)

The Board of Management for the Pennsylvania Society, by action at their meeting of October 1, 1913, granted a charter to a group located at Bedford, county seat of Bedford County, to be known as the Fort Bedford Chapter.

The officers elected to serve this chapter during its first year included: Augustus Inloes Lyon, president; Americus Enfield, first vice president; S. Albert Cessna, second vice president; J. Reed Irvine, secretary; William R. Beam, treasurer; Abraham Weisel, registrar; and Howard Cessna, historian.

Fort Bedford was selected by the members of this chapter to commemorate an early fort located within the present borough of Bedford. The earliest name for Bedford was Ray's-town, so called for John Wray, who, sometime before 1752, established there an important trading post for Indians and pioneer hunters and trappers. The place was called Raystown, Camp Raystown, "The Fort at Raystown", until August, 1759 when General John Stanwick formally named it Ford Bedford, apparently in honor of the Duke of Bedford.

Fort Bedford was one of the most important military posts during the French and Indian War, also during the Revolutionary War. Although never attacked or under siege it served as a rendezvous and a depot of supplies for the military and settlers. Being located on the Forbes Trail or military road between eastern Pennsylvania and the west it served as a stopping off place for the traveler and the town, even today, is the cross roads for numerous travelers.

The charter members of the Fort Bedford Chapter were:

William R. Beam

Clyde Cessna

H. Bertram Cessna

Howard Cessna

S. Albert Cessna

James Covalt

Dr. Americus Enfield

Walter F. Enfield

J. Reed Irvine

J. Douglas James

Capt. Augustus I. Lyon

James Russell

Abraham Weisel

The past presidents consist of: 1913 and 1914, Augustus I. Lyon; 1915-1922, Americus Enfield; 1923 and 1924, S. Albert Cessna.

Fort Bedford Chapter becoming inactive and delinquent in the payment of the member's dues, its charter was recalled by the Board of Management on April 3, 1925.

FORT JACKSON CHAPTER

WAYNESBURG, PA.

Interest in the organization of a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution at Waynesburg, Greene County, Pa., was aroused by Charles B. Shaler, president of the Pennsylvania Society, during the early part of 1945, when from a list of names eligible for membership, letters were written to some fifty men suggesting that they meet with a committee of the Society in the public room of the First National Bank on April 12, 1945. About eleven prospective candidates appeared and it being decided upon to proceed with the organization Paul D. Inghram, was elected chairman, Howard L. Leckey, secretary, and with the following, as the organizing committee: John T. Silveus, Florin Thomas, W. H. B. Lewis, William H. Barnes, and J. L. Fulton.

At a meeting held on June 6, 1945, the following were elected as the first officers: Paul D. Inghram, president; Don C. Longanecker, vice president; John N. Barclay, vice president; Howard L. Leckey, secretary-treasurer-genealogist; John E. Yoders, historian; Charles T. Strosnider, chaplain.

On September 13, 1945, the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, took action to grant a charter to the Fort Jackson Chapter with 211 charter members.

The name selected to designate this chapter was Fort Jackson in commemoration of an early fort that stood at the site of the present town of Waynesburg. This fort came into being in 1774, when Logan, a Cayuga chief, took up the hatchet against the white settlers in revenge of the massacre of his entire family. The nucleus of the fort was a cabin owned by a settler named Jackson located on a bluff on the south side of Ten Mile Creek, now within the corporate limits of the borough of Waynesburg.

Thirteen additional cabins were erected by other families, to form a hollow square of about an acre in extent, all having shed roofs sloping toward the interior, and connected by palisades ten feet high. The enclosed area was open to all who needed refuge and the palisades were supplied with port holes for lookouts and for firing guns when attacked. Exposed portions of the buildings were strengthened by extra strong timbers and had no openings except the port holes. All doors and windows opened upon the interior hollow square. Windows such as they happened to be were covered with greased paper.

During the Revolutionary War, Fort Jackson became one of the strong points in the frontier defense and served as the recruiting center for the militia and a station for the frontier rangers in their expeditions against the Indians. Captain James Hook's Calico Hunting Shirt Company which marched to join Washington's Army in New Jersey in 1776 was organized at Fort Jackson, also, some members of Captain Cresap's Company who marched to Boston in 1775, were recruited at this place.

The institution banquet for the Fort Jackson Chapter was held at the First Baptist Church of Waynesburg on October 29, 1945, with Charles B. Shaler, president of the Pennsylvania Society, as the installing officer. Several national society officers were present and other guests who witnessed the inductions of 149 members into the chapter, a remarkable enrollment exceeding any previous chapter enrollment in the entire United States and from a county of less than 50,000 population, but a county wherein many descendants of Revolutionary War lineage continue to reside.

The names of the charter members are not available.

The names of the past presidents are as follows: 1945 and 1946, Paul D. Inghram; 1947 and 1948, John L. Barclay; 1949 to 1951 inclusive, Harold Bell; 1952 to 1954 inclusive, R. Stanley Smith.

For the year 1955, the designated officers included: R. Stanley Smith, president; Paul D. Inghram, acting secretary; and J. Wood Ganear, treasurer. No election has been held to select officers for the year 1956, and the following named members will continue to serve: president, R. Stanley Smith, 127 East College Street, Waynesburg, Pa.; secretary, Paul D. Inghram, 55 East Franklin Street, Waynesburg, Pa.

FORT NECESSITY CHAPTER

UNIONTOWN, PA.

T. RAY FULTON

Chapter Secretary

Interest in the formation of a chapter of the Sons of the Revolution developed during the years 1924 to 1926, following the extensive programs and applications presented by the George Washington Bicentennial Commission, when patriots residing in the Uniontown area conceived the idea of preserving the Great Meadows where George Washington received his baptism of fire.

A preliminary meeting was held at the Great Meadows on July 4, 1926, when a temporary organization was formed with J. Edgar Hustead as president and J. C. Whaley as secretary. Application for a charter was made on Lafayette's birthday September 6, 1926, and granted by the Pennsylvania Society on Lincoln's birthday, February 12, 1927.

The first banquet and granting of charter meeting was held at the Uniontown Country Club on February 12, 1927, when an address was made by Rev. E. A. Hodil of the Third Presbyterian Church. A number of state and national representatives of the Sons of the American Revolution and other distinguished guests were present.

Following the dinner and exercise, a business meeting was held and the following officers were elected: J. Edgar Hustead, president; Harry J. Bell, first vice president; M. Bowman McDonald, second vice president; George H. Krepps, third vice president; J. C. Whaley, Sr., secretary and registrar; Homer H. Hess, treasurer; A. H. Hibschan, chaplain; Monroe M. Hopwood, historian; with the following additional members to the Board of Management; J. H. Lynn, Basil A. Brownfield, R. K. Warnock, J. F. Gray, Robert M. Bowie, Thomas P. Brownfield, J. W. Abraham, Clarence S. Flenniken, J. Espy Sherrard, H. B. Guiher, and J. Benton Crow.

The chapter selected the name of Fort Necessity to commemorate the site of a battle fought July 3, 1754, between the French who occupied the western part of Pennsylvania and a force of Virginians under Colonel George Washington, ten miles east of Uniontown. Washington's forces did not exceed 300 men while he was opposed by the French numbering 900 men, resulting in parley and the withdrawal of the Virginians.

The Society's Board of Management at their meeting on December 7, 1928, authorizing the issuing of a charter to the Fort Necessity Chapter containing the following names as charter members:

J. W. Abraham	Dr. Geo. H. Hess

The record of Fort Necessity Chapter's achievements is one of which its members may justly be proud.

The Chapter has celebrated Flag Day at Fort Necessity and Fort Gaddis, has presented a flag to the school at Sommerfield and has dedicated a tablet marking the old Braddock Road at Braddock Park. In conjunction with the Great Meadows and Col. Andrew Lynn Chapters, Daughters of the American Revolution, the Chapter has shown films abounding in historical interest to the grade schools of Uniontown and vicinity. Each year, the Chapter donates medals to the winners of history contests in the Uniontown Public Schools. At the National Congress of the Sons of the American Revolution held in Richmond, Virginia, this Chapter's delegates subscribed the sum of $500.00 toward the building fund of the National Headquarters in Washington, D. C. This amount has been paid and the Chapter will enjoy the honor of having its name engraved upon a tablet within the walls of this magnificent building. Incidentally, at present, only three chapters in the State of Pennsylvania have this distinction. The Chapter was incorporated on December 16, 1930, and subsequently acquired 23 acres of land from the Braddock Memorial Park Association. The local Chapter has donated a bronze tablet to adorn the walls of the reconstructed stockade of Fort Necessity and has subscribed the sum of $1000 to the Fort Necessity Memorial Association campaign fund for the restoration. Graves of Revolutionary War heroes have been located and suitably marked by the Chapter.

Those who have served as president of this chapter include: 1927-1928, J. Edgar Hustead; 1929, R. K. Warnock; 1930, 1931 and 1932, J. Espey Sherrard; 1933, J. W. Abraham; 1934-1936, Darrell W. ## FORT VENANGO CHAPTER

OIL CITY, PA.

The name selected to designate this chapter was to commemorate Fort Venango which was erected by the British Forces in 1759, during the French and Indian War. The name Venango was used by the French for this stream that has since been more generally called French Creek. An old Indian town, Venango stood at the mouth of this stream. Oil City owes its name to the rise and growth of the petroleum business being first laid out on the Western side of Oil Creek, and on the bank of the Allegheny River, about 1860.

The Fort Venango Chapter was instituted at the Arlington Hotel, Oil City, on May 16, 1940 by Harbaugh Miller of the Pittsburgh Chapter. The speaker for the occasion was Hon. William M. Parker, Judge of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN CHAPTER

DUQUESNE, PA:

(Inactive)

The Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, received a petition from ten prospective members residing in Duquesne, Allegheny County, which was favorably acted upon on February 4, 1932, and authority granted to organize a chapter to be known as the Benjamin Franklin Chapter.

The chapter was duly organized with the following members elected to serve as the first officers: Harris L. Awl, president; Lawrence E. Riddle, vice president; Clyde H. Wolford, secretary; James H. Knapp, treasurer; J. C. Reed, historian; Bennett M. Livezey, genealogist; George L. Gallatin, Jr., chaplain; C. H. Huff, registrar.

The selection of the name of Benjamin Franklin to designate this chapter was to further honor Pennsylvania's most illustrious citizen who came to Philadelphia, from Boston, in 1723, as a lad of seventeen. Fifty-two years of his life was devoted to service to his state and nation in various public offices.

Benjamin Franklin was clerk of the Assembly from 1736 to 1747, a member of the Pennsylvania assembly for fourteen years in which he was an outspoken opponent of the proprietary government. In 1775, Continental Congress appointed him as the first Postmaster-General. From 1776 to 1785 he served his country on various diplomatic missions in Europe. He helped to frame and signed the Declaration of Independence, the treaty of alliance with France, the treaty of peace with Great Britain, and the Constitution of the United States. He served as Governor of Pennsylvania from October 18, 1785, to October 14, 1788, and received numerous honors. Three Pennsylvania towns and twenty-two American counties were named for this distinguished patriot.

The names of the charter members are not available.

The only member's name that appears as having served the Benjamin Franklin Chapter as president during its existence was Harris L. Awl.

This chapter failed to function and its charter was officially cancelled by the Society on February 22, 1934.

NATHANIEL GREENE CHAPTER

GREENSBURG, PA.

(Inactive)

A petition was received by the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, at their meeting of October 3, 1929, that a charter be granted to a group of eleven eligible members residing in Greensburg, County Seat of Westmoreland County, which was granted with the request that additional petitioners be secured.

The names of the first elected officers were: William G. Irwin president; James E. Hershey, vice president; Joseph C. Rial, secretary; William J. Laughner, treasurer; Lewis Clark Walkinshaw, historian; Lysle W. Bash, chaplain.

This chapter was named in honor of General Nathaniel Greene, the ablest of Washington's officers. Greene's services to his country are a part of American history. Born in Rhode Island, in 1742, he was elected to the assembly of Rhode Island at the age of twenty-six and in 1776, as brigadier-general he led the three Rhode Island regiments to Boston to join Washington.

For his willingness to participate in the war his Quaker brethren disowned him, but Congress made him a Major-General and he served with conspicuous valor and ability in many battles. By a series of brilliant victories and by superb generalship he delivered the southern states from the Yoke of the British oppression for which he was acclaimed a hero and awarded gifts and honors. Georgia presented him with an estate of 24,000 acres near Savannah where he settled down to a life of comparative ease but died in 1786, at the age of forty-four.

A charter was presented to the officers of the Nathaniel Greene chapter on Decoration Day, 1930, at a meeting held in the Salem Church at Greensburg. The names of the charter members are not available.

Those members who served as president included: 1929 and 1930, William G. Irwin; 1931, William J. Laughner; 1932, David R. Walkinshaw; 1933, Benjamin F. Widaman; 1934 and 1935, Benjamin F. Adams; 1936, 1937, and 1938, Wade T. Kline; 1939, 1940, 1941, and 1942, Charles R. Freed.

Chapter activities were not continued and the members became delinquent in payment of their dues resulting in the charter being cancelled and surrendered to the Society by action of the Board of Managers on January 8, 1942.

In 1947, interest was renewed in having a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution at Greensburg, resulting in a charter being granted to the General Arthur St. Clair Chapter.

HARRISBURG CHAPTER

HARRISBURG, PA.

(Inactive)

The minutes of the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, for their meeting on October 6, 1927, state that Harris L. Awl reported progress in organizing a chapter at Harrisburg. The minutes for December 1, 1927, states that an application for permission to form a chapter at Harrisburg was granted by the Board.

The name selected to designate this chapter was the city in which the headquarters would be located and where activities would be held. Harrisburg was founded by John Harris, Jr., who inherited more than seven hundred acres of land upon the death of his father in 1748, the original settler. In 1753 the Penns granted him the privilege of establishing a ferry across the Susquehanna River, and the place was thence forth known far and wide as Harris' Ferry.

In 1785, John Harris and his son-in-law, William Maclay, laid out a town at Harris' Ferry and called it Harrisburg. Foreseeing and firmly believing that the capital of the state might sometime be located there, he conveyed four acres of land on Capital Hill in trust for public use and such public purposes as the Legislature should hereafter direct. When Dauphin County was formed, March 4, 1785, Harrisburg became the county seat and in 1812, the capital of Pennsylvania was moved from Lancaster to Harrisburg.

The names of the charter members are not available, nor the names of any of the first officers and past presidents.

Upon the Harrisburg Chapter becoming inactive and the members delinquent in the payment of their dues the charter was revoked.

During the early part of 1940, another effort was made to establish a chapter at Harrisburg which resulted in forming an aggressive chapter named the Harris Ferry Chapter.

HARRIS FERRY CHAPTER

HARRISBURG, PA.

ANDREW WILSON GREEN

Chapter Secretary

Several years elapsed between the cancellation of the Harrisburg Chapter and the organization of a new chapter at Harrisburg, named the Harris Ferry Chapter, which came into being in 1940, by several members of the Society who were members-at-large or affiliated with other chapters.

In January, 1940, an informal meeting was held in the Pittsburgh office of John S. Fisher, president of the Pennsylvania Society, attended by Charles B. Shaler, chairman of the New Chapter's Committee; Malcolm MacPherson, aide to the President; and Charles W. Simmons of Pittsburgh, a former resident of Harrisburg who was appointed to undertake the task of forming an organization at Harrisburg.

A preliminary meeting was held at the Dauphin County Historical Society headquarters in the Rudolph Kelker House in charge of John E. Fox of the Dauphin County Court, with fifty-four prospective members in attendance. John McIlhenny Smith was made temporary chairman of a committee to proceed with the formation of a chapter.

The name of the Harris Ferry Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution is a felicitous one. For, long before the War for Independence from Britain, the Ferry which was set up by John Harris, Senior, and John Harris, Junior, had not only become a meeting place between East and West in Pennsylvania, but also an animated center of the frontier spirit which was to crystalize in 1774, in the Hanover and Middletown Resolves; in 1775, in the Constitution and by-laws of the Londonderry and Liberty Company of Old Lancaster County. In 1776 to the plaudits of his neighbors on the East bank of the Susquehanna, ferryman John Harris II, from his doorstep, a few days after July 4th, read to them from a Philadelphia newspaper the Declaration of American Independence. The list of leaders, patriots, and soldiers in the American Revolution from the vicinity of Harrisburg is large.

Among the famous patriots from the vicinity of Harrisburg were the fighting parson John Elder, Colonel Timothy Green, Colonel James Burd, Captain James Cowden, Captain Matthew Smith, Robert Dixon, Lieutenant Michael Simpson, John Armstrong of Carlisle, William Thompson, Captain Michael Whitley and Lieutenant James Potter.

The institution dinner was held at the Zembo Mosque, Harrisburg, on May 9, 1940, and attended by representatives of patriotic and other organizations. The installing officer was Glenn E. Thomson, past president of the Pennsylvania Society. The principal speakers were Arthur H. James, Governor of Pennsylvania; Messmore Kendall, president general of the National Society; and John E. Fox of the Dauphin County Courts.

The officers installed at this meeting to serve for the year 1940 were: John McIlhenny Smith, president; Galen Hain, first vice president; Josiah F. Reed, second vice president; Robert M. Rutherford, third vice president; John W. Todd, secretary; Millard B. Simmons, treasurer; Napoleon H. Greenawalt, registrar; Sterling G. McNees, chancellor; Evan J. Miller, genealogist; and A. Since 1941 the history of the chapter has been dignified by action and events by the personalities, the services and the aims of its members and leaders. During more than a decade of vigorous compatriot life, it has not only had many chapter meetings, and a number of banquets with distinguished speakers present, but has on numerous occasions served industriously in the capacity of host. In 1944 on May 17th and 18th, it provided hospitality for the fifty-fifth annual congress of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. On several occasions, namely, March 14, 1946, March 7, 1947, March 10, 1949, January 13, 1951 and again in 1953, it has been host to the Pennsylvania Society's Board of Management. On Sunday the 30th and on Monday the 31st of October 1949, it entertained the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Society at Hershey.

With its cooperation and under its tutelage the William Maclay Chapter at Sunbury came into being on March 27, 1947, the Conococheague Chapter at Chambersburg on October 7, 1946, and the Continental Congress Chapter at York on June 7, 1949.

More modestly but as faithfully, and particularly under the efforts of our late Compatriot Charles W. Simmons, the chapter has carried on an active program in seeking out graveyards and cemeteries where soldiers of the War for Independence lie, and diligently mark the graves of those heroes with the emblem of the order. Annually from 1947 to the present time, picnics have been held, several of them at the delightful Hill-Top Inn, Shepherdstown, Cumberland County, where spacious grounds and lovely views increase the appetite for Turkey Dinners. Other of these picnics have been held at Allenberry, near Boiling Springs, Cumberland County. In 1946, the Harris Ferry Chapter and the Harrisburg Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, each alternating with the other as host and hostess, began a series of annual banquets and celebrations of Washington's Birthday. These functions, despite their conventional and formal dignity have proved most helpful and stimulating.

The chapter also had a dinner upon the occasion of the celebration of Flag Day which has been continued since 1948. Among the speakers have been Judge Homer E. Kreider, Colonel John McIlhenny Smith, the well known author Edward Hunter, the beloved Harrisburg minister, Rev. Dr. Sheridan W. Bell, and others of equal note.

The chapter has at no time forgotten that its prime purpose for being is not social for fellowship and entertainment with other compatriots. These count only as they give meaning to its influences as a patriotic and civic force in Central Pennsylvania. The Harris Ferry Chapter, has diligently, from year to year, presented facsimilies of the Declaration of Independence and of the Bill of Rights to the Schools of Harrisburg and Dauphin County.

Among the occasions which the Harris Ferry Chapter has helped to celebrate is Bill of Rights Day. Compatriot William M. Reed, son of the Past-President, Dr. Josiah F. Reed, prepared the radio program for this event in 1953 and 1954. In 1953, Judge Mark E. Garber of the Cumberland County Courts, gave an address on the Bill of Rights to our annual meeting in December of that year.

The names of the past presidents are: 1940 and 1941, John McI. Smith; 1942, Josiah F. Reed; 1943 and 1944, John A. Fritchey, II; 1945 and 1946, John W. Todd; 1947, George E. Foss; 1948, J. Paul Rupp; 1949 and 1950 Charles W. Simmons; 1951, Forrest Mercer; 1952 and 1953, Fred N. Roe; 1954, Chester E. Shirk.

The present officers of the Harris Ferry Chapter of the Pennsylvania Society of the Sons of the American Revolution are: Millard B. Simmons, president; Homer H. Strickler, first vice president; John A. Roe, second vice president; Andrew Wilson Green, secretary; L. Whitley Simmons, treasurer; W. Russel Hoerner, chancellor; Stanley C. Fuller, genealogist; James B. Redus, historian; Albert M. Rung, registrar; George H. Toadvine, Jr., chaplain; and Charles H. Gordinier, associate chaplain.

Additional members elected to the Board of Management: John R. Gongloff, Allen J. Meyer, E. P. Hill Roberts, James H. Johnston, W. Alexander McCune, J. Landis Randall, Arthur B. Blyler, Robert L. Myers, III, and William M. Reed.

The annual election was held in the Appian Room of the Harrisburger Hotel on December 8, 1955 when the following officers were elected for the year 1956: president, Millard B. Simmons, Valley Road, Mounted Route, Enola, Pa.; secretary, Andrew W. Green, 603 North Front Street, Harrisburg, Pa.

GOVERNOR JOSEPH HIESTER CHAPTER

JOHN F. NEIHART

Chapter Treasurer

The Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, at their meeting of June 10, 1937, authorized the granting of a charter to a group of patriots residing in Reading and vicinity, to be known as the Governor Joseph Hiester Chapter.

Preliminary efforts to organize a chapter had been made by Louis J. Heizmann of Reading as early as November, 1936, but it was not until May 11, 1937 when a sufficient number of petitioners were secured to request the Pennsylvania Society to authorize the formation of a chapter.

An organization meeting was held in the Wyomissing Club, Reading, on May 25, 1937, when the name Governor Joseph Hiester was adopted to designate the chapter, and the following members were elected as its first officers: George B. Additional members on Board of Management: Robert S. Birch, Louis J. Heizmann, Clifford W. Kissinger and Cooper F. Weaver.

The chapter was so named to honor Joseph Hiester who served as Governor of Pennsylvania during the years 1821-1822 and 1823. He was born in Bern Township, Berks County, November 18, 1752, and resided at Reading from 1771 until his death in 1832. As a captain of militia he organized, in 1775, a volunteer company and marched to the assistance of Washington at Long Island, in which engagement he and many of his men were killed or taken as prisoners. After several months of imprisonment he was exchanged and returned to his home at Reading, but later, he returned to the army and participated in the battle of Germantown, where he was wounded.

Joseph Hiester was a member of the convention which met at Philadelphia in 1787 for the ratification of the Constitution of the United States and in 1789 he was a member of the convention which framed the state constitution of 1790. He was a member of the State Senate for several years and in 1797 he was elected a representative in Congress, in which body he served for fourteen years.

The institution dinner for the Governor Joseph Hiester Chapter

INDIANA CHAPTER

INDIANA, PA.

(Inactive)

The Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, at their meeting held on March 1, 1928, received a petition from prospective members residing in Indiana, county seat of Indiana County, and vicinity, for permission to organize a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution, which was granted.

The town of Indiana was laid out in 1805, and chosen as the seat of justice, the commissioners accepting a tract of land of 250 acres which was donated for that purpose by George Clymer of Philadelphia, one of the Pennsylvania signers of the Declaration of Independence.

The Indiana Chapter was formally instituted at the Zion Lutheran Church on November 22, 1928, by John L. Walker, president of the Pennsylvania Society. Distinguished guests were present representing the National and State organizations of the Sons of the American Revolution.

The names of the charter members are not available.

JUNIATA CHAPTER

LEWISTOWN, PA.

(Inactive)

A chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution was organized at Lewistown, county seat of Mifflin County, during the early part of 1939, and named the Juniata Chapter.

The first officers elected to serve this chapter consisted of the following: Taylor Reed, president; James C. Sterrett, first vice president; M. Ward Fleming, second vice president; John W. Additional members elected to the Board of Management: Robert P. Banks, John W. Fleming, Eugene F. Henry, John R. W. Hunter, Jr., J. Dean Clark, Jr., and Jonas B. Kauffman, Jr.

The name selected to designate the Juniata Chapter is an Iroquois Indian name for the beautiful Juniata River which flows through Lewistown from the west on its way to the Susquehanna. Mifflin County was formed September 19, 1789, and named in honor of Governor Thomas Mifflin. Lewistown, the county seat of Mifflin County, was laid out by Samuel Edmiston in 1791, and named in honor of William Lewis, an ironmaster.

The Juniata Chapter was instituted at the Green Gables Hotel, Lewistown, on May 25, 1939, with Glenn E. Thomson, president of the Susquehanna Chapter, as installing officer, followed by addresses from M. Ward Fleming of Bellefonte, and John S. Fisher, president of the Pennsylvania Society.

The Board of Management at their meeting on February 13, 1947, ordered the charter suspended for non-payment of dues and on March 10, 1949, took action to cancel the charter.

LAFAYETTE CHAPTER

WILKINSBURG, PA.

CHARLES E. NESBITT

Chapter Secretary

A petition to organize a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution at Wilkinsburg, was considered by the Board of Management of the Pennsylvania Society at their meeting of November 7, 1929, but held over until the next meeting in order to secure more applicants when the Society granted Harris L. Awl permission to organize a chapter. The charter was granted on February 20, 1930.

A meeting had previously been held in the Calvary Lutheran Church, Wilkinsburg, on November 4, 1929, when the following named members of the Society who resided in that vicinity were elected as the first officers: Harris L. Awl, president; William A. Dick, vice president; William J. Aiken, secretary; Samuel R. B. Stewart, treasurer; David G. Spindler, registrar; Harrold T. Torrance, chaplain; and James A. At a regular meeting held at the same place on March 6, 1930, action was taken to change the designation of the chapter from Wilkinsburg to Lafayette. Subsequent meetings, until 1945, were held at the above named hotel but since then meetings are being held at the Y.W.C.A., at members homes, or in various Churches in order to reduce the chapter's expenses.

This chapter was named in honor of the memory of Roche Yves Gilbert Motier, Marquis de la Fayette, whose influence and bravery had been of inestimable value to the American Colonies during the Revolutionary War. He was commissioned a major-general in the Continental Army by Congress on July 31, 1777, wounded at the Battle of Brandywine on September 11, 1777, sailed for France on January 11, 1779, returned to the United States on April 27, 1780, with material aid for the colonies in their fight for their independence. He returned to France on December 22, 1781, following the surrender of the British at Yorktown on October 19, 1781. On May 26, 1825, by special invitation, General de la Fayette, visited Uniontown, the county seat of Fayette County, where he was accorded a great reception by the people. He died on May 30, 1854, age 77.

LOGAN CHAPTER

ALTOONA, PA.

(Inactive)

A meeting of men interested in the organization of a local chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution was held in the Logan Room, Penn Alto Hotel, Altoona, on April 4, 1929, with Guy C. Robb presiding as temporary chairman. The following officers were then elected: Guy C. Robb, president; Joseph D. Findley, vice president; Frank B. White, secretary; Robert C. Wilson, treasurer; H. Allen Anderson, registrar; J. Foster Meck, historian; and R. Max Lewis, chaplain.

Action was taken to designate the new chapter as the Logan Chapter to commemorate the name of an Indian who was friendly to the white settlers of this area during the Revolutionary war. Early settlers knew him as Captain Logan and it is believed that he was an Iroquois chief who had been disabled and consequently elected to spend his days on the frontier in hunting and fishing. His last known residence was at Chickalacamoose near what is now Clearfield, where he died about 1785. He is not to be confused with "Logan the Mingo Chief," son of Chickalemy, who resided in Ohio where his family were murdered by white men.

The formal installation of the Logan Chapter took place at the Penn Alto Hotel, Altoona, on November 23, 1929, when John L. Walker of Pittsburgh, President of the Pennsylvania Society, installed the officers.

The board of managers of the Pennsylvania Society on the 20th of February 1930, granted the application for the charter which was presented on October 8, 1930 and contained the names of the following charter members:

H. Allen Anderson
C. W. Booser
Dr. J. D. Findley
Harry A. Jacobs
R. Max Lewis
J. Foster Meck

Dr. C. H. Metzgar
Dr. G. C. Robb
P. W. Snyder
C. E. Torrance
Frank B. White
Robert C. Wilson

The only member known to have served as president of this chapter was Guy C. Robb in whose office meetings were held and efforts were made to increase the membership. According to the records available it was difficult to secure the annual dues of existing members and the chapter became delinquent in their payment to the Pennsylvania Society. Failure to collect the dues and to keep the chapter active resulted in the charter being officially cancelled by the Society on February 22, 1934.

A new chapter was organized at Altoona on December 13, 1946, and named the Blair County Chapter.

WILLIAM MACLAY CHAPTER

SUNBURY, PA.

HEBER G. GEARHART

Chapter Registrar-Genealogist

The formation of a new chapter in Sunbury originated with John A. Fritchey, II, Past President of the Harris Ferry Chapter at Harrisburg, and Charles B. Shaler, President of the Pennsylvania Society. These two acted with Heber G. Gearhart of Sunbury, a life member of the Harris Ferry Chapter, in the work of obtaining members for the new chapter, and its final organization.

Three preliminary meetings were held, and at the third of these, on September 18, 1946, officers were elected and a name selected for the new chapter. Much correspondence went between the three organizing members, Fritchey, Shaler and Gearhart.

Applications for membership were sent in vigorously.

The new William Maclay Chapter was instituted on October 7, 1946, in the auditorium of the First Reformed Church of Sunbury. It was preceded by a meeting of the State Board of Management and a dinner. The service of institution and installation of officers was conducted by Charles B. Shaler, State President. John A. Fritchey presented the charter to the new President Gearhart. Allen L. Oliver, of Cape Girardeau, Missouri, President General of the National Society, presented an inspiring address on the work of the Society. There were State and National officers present, as well as officers of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and a great massing of flags.

The chapter was named in honor of William Maclay, a Scotch-Irish man who played an important part in the early history of our locality. He was a deputy surveyor, and in that capacity surveyed thousands of acres on the Juniata river and in Northumberland County. His surveying work extended from the forks of the Susquehanna to Bellefonte. In his capacity as surveyor he laid out Sunbury in 1772 and Harrisburg in 1785. He was greatly interested in land activities and acted as land agent for the Proprietaries from 1772 to 1790. He served as prothonotary, registrar, and recorder, and clerk of the Orphans' Court of Northumberland County, for many years. The stone houses which he erected in Sunbury and Harrisburg are still standing although greatly remodeled. He held many positions of trust during the Revolutionary War. In 1784 he was one of the Pennsylvania commissioners to make a treaty with the Indians at Fort Stanwix. He served as one of the first United States senators from Pennsylvania from 1789 to 1791, and left his memoirs of the first Congress of the United States, one of the best records extant.

The first officers who were installed October 7, 1946, were as follows: Heber G. Gearhart, president-genealogist; Truman J. Purdy, vice president; John B. Boyer, vice president; John E. Lenker, Jr., vice president; William H. Foltz, secretary-treasurer; John H. Carter, historian; and Charles A. Fryling, registrar.

When the chapter was instituted it had forty-three members. This number was increased, until it had sixty-eight when the actual charter was presented. This presentation was made by Louis J. Heizmann, president of the Pennsylvania State Society, at "Otzinachson", the country home of Lewis E. Theiss near Muncy, on July 21, 1948. At this time Compatriot Heizmann also presented the chapter with a beautiful silk chapter flag with "William Maclay Chapter" upon it.

From the time the Chapter was formed it held four meetings each year on or about the following dates: Washington's Birthday, February 22; Flag Day, June 14; Constitution Day, September 17; Bill of Rights Day, December 15. Some time later, April 20, 1950, it added two more meetings each year as follows: Lexington Day, April 19; Yorktown Day, October 19. With the exception of one year, the annual meeting and election of officers has been held in December. During the summer time outings have been held in the form of basket picnics at local places.

The Chapter has done special work in developing the story of our local history, which has been very well received. This work took the form of historical sketches written by our members and friends, which were broadcast over Station WKOK of the Sunbury Broadcasting Company at Sunbury. The first series comprised sketches of local history broadcast during the winter of 1948-1949. The second series comprised biographical sketches of prominent local people of by-gone days broadcast during the winter of 1949-1950. Each series comprised twenty-six sketches. The work of planning these broadcasts was done by Com-patriots Heber G. Gearhart and Lewis E. Theiss.

In order to preserve these sketches an arrangement was made with the Union County Standard-Journal to publish these sketches in the newspaper each week, and then print them in book form. The printed book was finally completed during February of 1955, and these books are now being sold by the chapter for $1.50 each. The book contains twenty-five sketches of the first series as follows: The Six Nations Indian Confederacy; Migration of the Palatines from Schoharie; Journeys of Shikellamy and Conrad Weiser; Shamokin, the Indian Capital; Penn's Creek Massacre; The Building of Fort Augusta; Land Grants to Pennsylvania Officers; Land Purchases in Pennsylvania; Frontier Forts in the Revolution; Wyoming Massacre and the Great Runaway; The Hartley

McKEESPORT CHAPTER

McKEESPORT, PA.

The minutes of the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, of January 19, 1922, record the organization of a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution at McKeesport, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania.

The organization meeting was held on February 10, 1922 with the following named members elected as the first officers: A. E. Leffler, president; A. B. Holmes, vice president; John A. Kelso, secretary; Gilbert F. Myer, treasurer; J. C. Miller, historian; Marion M. Ginn, registrar; and George R. Phillips, chaplain.

The name McKeesport selected as the name for this chapter was to designate the place in which headquarters for the chapter would be located and where its activities would be held. McKeesport was laid out in 1795, by John McKee, and named in honor of his father, David McKee, a north-country Irishman, who at the close of the French and Indian War, came to the Monongahela, where he was well received by Queen Aliquippa, who allowed him to settle at the mouth of the Yougheny River.

MIDDLETOWN CHAPTER

MIDDLETOWN, PA.

(Inactive)

The minutes of the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, indicate that an application for a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution was filed as early as April 7, 1922, by a group of compatriots residing at Middletown, Dauphin County, Pa.

The first meeting of the Chapter was held in Krauss Hall on June 9, 1922, when the following officers were installed by R. C. Schanck; Robert P. Raymond, president; Truman R. Ettele, first vice president; Colin S. Few, second vice president; William K. Lemon, Jr., secretary; Harry B. Etter, assistant secretary; LeRoy H. Markley, treasurer; Robert F. Keiper, registrar; and Joseph Montgomery, chaplain-historian.

This chapter selected the name of the town in which the members resided and where its activities would be held as its chapter name. Middletown is one of the oldest settlements in Dauphin County. It was laid out about 1755 by George Fisher on land conveyed to him by his father, John Fisher, a Philadelphia Quaker. It derived its name from the fact that it stands midway between the towns of Lancaster and Carlisle, and served as a half-way station for colonial wagoners and stage-drivers.

The only member whose name appears as having served the Middletown chapter as president is Robert P. Raymond.

The Chapter becoming inactive and dues not being collected and paid over to the Pennsylvania Society, the Charter was surrendered on May 10, 1945.

MOUNT PLEASANT CHAPTER

MOUNT PLEASANT, PA.

CHARLES R. FREED

Chapter Historian

The most recent addition to the many chapters of the Sons of the American Revolution is the Mount Pleasant Chapter located at Mount Pleasant, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Interest in the formation of a chapter at Mount Pleasant can be attributed to the efforts of a most active chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Braddock Trail Chapter, which was formed at Mount Pleasant on December 15, 1943. The officers and members of the Braddock Trail Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, especially, Mrs. R. Edward Beard, ex-regent and present registrar, who was attributed as "Mother of the new Mount Pleasant Chapter" are given credit for preparing the necessary data for application blanks and for securing the large number of charter members.

The membership is gathered from the southwestern section of Westmoreland County, and the name for this new chapter to be known as the Mount Pleasant Chapter, was chosen by the group of members, due to the borough of Mount Pleasant being the historical seat of this particular section of Old Westmoreland, the name having been derived from Mount Pleasant Church, an old point selected by the Redstone Presbytery, and named thus by them, where there was preaching as early as 1781, when there were but a few log cabins and shops in the center of a rich country.

The institution dinner was held at the Pleasant Valley Country club near Mount Pleasant on April 2, 1955, attended by one hundred and one persons, many of them distinguished guests representing patriotic and civil organizations. H. Ryerson Decker, president of the Pennsylvania Society served as Master of Ceremonies. Greetings were extended by Mrs. R. Edward Beard, of Mount Pleasant; Ansly A. Izenour, president of the Pittsburgh Chapter; and by Mrs. Herbert Patterson, state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The speaker of the occasion was Clyde R. Flory, vice president and chairman of the New Chapters Committee.

The following officers were elected and installed by Clyde R. Flory to serve for the year 1955: Shannon W. Kreinbrook, president; Robert W. Stahl, first vice president; Luther J. Grimm, second vice president; Howard D. Shearer, third vice president; Joseph W. O. Pahel, recording secretary; James R. Wood, treasurer; John H. Hamel, registrar; Carl D. Lauffer, chaplain; Charles R. Freed, historian; Harry C. Gettemy, chancellor; Joseph O. Hunter, genealogist.

The names of the charter members are as follows:

Clarence William Boyer	Joseph W. O. Pahel
John Russell Canose, Sr.	Donald Clay Reagan
William James Covert, Jr.	Carl Freeman Ringler
Charles Robert Freed	Walter Hunter Ringler
Arthur Oren Gettemy	Adolphus D. Rumbaugh
Eli Huffman Gettemy	Albert Curtis Rumbaugh
Harry Chambers Gettemy	Robert Lee Rumbaugh, Jr.
James Wisley Gettemy	John Lawrence Ruth

Joseph Oliver Hunter	Robert William Stahl
Shannon W. Kreinbrook	William Franklin Herbert Stahl

The Mount Pleasant Chapter having been organized during April, 1955, the chapter took action to continue the present officers for the year 1956, namely: president, Shannon W. Kreinbrook, 126 Center Avenue, Mount Pleasant, Pa.; secretary, Joseph W. O. Pahel, P. O. Box 251, Scottdale, Pa.

NEW BETHLEHEM CHAPTER

NEW CASTLE CHAPTER

NEW CASTLE, PA.

(Inactive)

Interest in the formation of a chapter of Sons of the American Revolution at New Castle, Lawrence County, Pa., was aroused during the year 1899, and on April 5, 1900, the first meeting was held when the following were elected as officers: Samuel W. Dana, president; Robert G. Allen, vice president; Harry K. Gregory, secretary; Charles P. Shaw, treasurer; Jonathan S. DuShane, registrar.

The name of this chapter was derived from the town in which it was located. New Castle is the county seat of Lawrence County and was named by John Carlisle Stewart, a civil engineer who was engaged in resurveying the "donation lands" granted to Revolutionary soldiers in western Pennsylvania. He took up a tract of unoccupied land of about fifty acres at the confluence of the Neshannock Creek with the Shenango.

Three Chapters of the Sons of the American Revolution have been organized at New Castle, in 1900, 1915, and in 1944, and each one became inactive and passed out of existence.

The charter members of the chapter organized in 1900 were:

Richard C. Clarke

Harry Knight Gregory

Clare Phillips DuShane

Charles Pearson Shaw

Jonathan Smith DuShane

William A. Stritmater

Membership in this chapter increased from the six charter members to forty-five in 1903 and was probably the most active chapter in the Pennsylvania Society at that time. One of its activities was to have the pupils of the public schools care for the Revolutionary patriots' graves which resulted in many being marked and cared for that hitherto had been neglected.

The past presidents of the original New Castle Chapter were: 1900 to 1906 inclusive, Samuel W. Dana; 1907 and 1908, C. H. Akens; 1909 to 1912 inclusive, William A. Stritmater; 1913 and 1914, George B. Zahniser.

The New Castle Chapter became inactive some time prior to 1915, when with renewed interest a charter was granted and the following officers were elected: William A. Stritmater, president; Arthur L. Russell, vice president; S. D. Long, secretary; G. W. Gageby, treasurer; J. S. DuShane, registrar.

The names appearing on the 1915 charter are not available.

The past presidents were: 1915 and 1916, William A. Stritmater; 1917, Hamilton A. Wilkinson; 1918 and 1919, S. W. Perry; 1920 to 1922 inclusive, David H. Long; 1923 and 1924, Joseph B. Hoon; 1925 and 1926, H. L. Dunlap; 1927 and 1928, W. J. Caldwell; 1929, H. D. McGoun; 1930, E. F. G. Harper; 1931, Earl McL. Kyle; 1932, Welty O. Rugh; 1933, Ralph C. McGoun; 1934, Franklin R. Wood; 1935 to 1937 inclusive, W. Fulton Jackson; 1938, 1939 and 1940, John A. Evans; 1941, Harold D. Harlan.

This chapter became inactive prior to 1940, as the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, considered a motion at their meeting of November 14, 1940, to call the charter but the motion, was tabled with the expectation that the chapter would resume activities. At the Board's meeting of October 9, 1941, the matter was again considered and the charter was recalled due to no per capita dues having been paid for three years.

The New Castle Chapter was reorganized on February 17, 1944, when the following officers were elected: James R. Meade, president; and Earl M. Cass, secretary.

The Board of Management authorized the issuance of a charter at their meeting of March 9, 1944. The names of the charter members are not available.

The past presidents were: 1944 to 1946 inclusive, James R. Meade; 1947, Earl M. Cass; 1948, James R. Meade.

The third chapter to be organized at New Castle failed to continue active and to collect and pay over to the Pennsylvania Society the annual dues for its members resulting in action by the Board of Management at their meeting of December 31, 1948 to call in the charter and the chapter not complying with the regulation, its charter was cancelled on March 10, 1949.

PHILADELPHIA CHAPTER

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

TRISTRAM COFFIN WHITAKER

Chapter Historian

A petition dated March 20, 1901, was received by the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, and approved on March 29, 1901, from a group of patriots residing in Philadelphia requesting permission to establish a Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution in the City of Philadelphia.

The first officers elected to serve this chapter were Harry Blynn, president; George R. Randall, vice president; H. B. Gill, secretary; Edward Heston Harding, treasurer; Thomas Wynne registrar; and John V. Allen, Historian.

The chapter was named for the city of Philadelphia which was founded and named by William Penn in 1682, being known as "the city of brotherly love." It was chartered a city in 1701, and was the seat of the provincial council and the State capital until 1799. The first Constitutional Congress met at Carpenter's Hall on September 4, 1774, and the State House bell (The Liberty Bell) proclaimed America's independence on July 4, 1776.

Philadelphia was occupied by the British forces under General Howe from September 26, 1777 until June 18, 1778, and during that winter General Washington's Patriotic army encamped at Valley Forge. A number of engagements took place in the vicinity of Philadelphia at that time including the Battle of Brandywine, Paoli Massacre and Battle of Germantown.

Representatives of twelve states assembled in convention at Philadelphia in the summer of 1787 and prepared a constitution of government for the United States which was adopted on the 17th of September, 1787, and went into operation on the 4th day of March, 1789, with General George Washington serving as the first president of the United States, from 30th of April, 1789 to 4th of March, 1797. From 1790 to 1800, Philadelphia was the national capital.

June 14 is observed as the anniversary of the adoption of the first American flag, the stars and stripes, by Elizabeth Ross, familiarly called Betsy Ross who was born in Philadelphia on January 1, 1752. She was the daughter of Samuel Griscom, a noted builder of pre-revolutionary days, who constructed the greater part of the old State House — now Independence Hall — in Philadelphia. She married John Ross in 1773, and after his death in 1776, she engaged in making flags at her little home on Arch Street.

Samuel R. C. Cooper, a resident of Lansdowne, Pa., in 1907 was accepted for membership in the Sons of the American Revolution as a descendant of Elizabeth Griscom (Ross) by a second marriage to Lieut. John Claypole. The application for membership states that "John Claypole, 2nd Lieutenant, wounded at the battle of Germantown and at Red Bank, was the bearer of important messages to General Washington. Taken as a prisoner of war aboard the "Luzerne," an armed cruiser of 18 guns, on sailing to France, on return voyage was captured by the British and taken to England and imprisoned at old Mill Prison, Plymouth. After his return to America he married May 8, 1783, "Betsy Ross" the designer of the American Flag."

The charter for the Philadelphia Chapter was presented on June 4, 1901, and contained the following names as charter members:

John V. Allen

Harry Blynn

Edward H. Harding

William P. Hubbard

George R. Randall

G. H. Whyte

The members of this chapter place about 300 flags on the graves of Revolutionary Soldiers each Memorial Day and observe Washington's Birthday when Good Citizenship Medals are presented to outstanding citizens of the United States, including Fulton Lewis, Jr., Gen. George S. Patton, Gen. Hugh Bradley, Admiral William F. Halsey, Admiral Richard E. Byrd, and Senator Joseph R. McCarthy.

The chapter is represented on the committee to preserve the cruiser "Olympia" and is taking an active part in the observance of the 250th Anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin on January 17, 1956.

The names of the past presidents are: 1901 to 1908 inclusive, Harry Blynn; 1909 and 1910, Clarence P. Wynne; 1911 to 1917 inclusive, Moses Veale; 1918, 1919, and 1920, Eugene C. # GENERAL ARTHUR ST. CLAIR CHAPTER

GREENSBURG, PA.

WILLIAM J. LAUGHNER

Chapter Historian

After several preliminary informal meetings of prospects for membership in the Sons of the American Revolution who resided in Greensburg and Latrobe, the Pennsylvania Society was petitioned to grant authority for the formation of a chapter at Greensburg, county seat of Westmoreland County. This chapter succeeded the Nathaniel Greene Chapter which became inactive and surrendered its charter in 1942.

An organization meeting was called by Charles B. Shaler, chairman of the Society's New Chapters Committee, on November 22, 1946, when the following members were elected as the first officers: William T. Dom III, president; Calvin E. Pollins secretary-treasurer; Frank E. Maddocks, registrar; Harry E. Cope, chancellor; J. Paul Harman, chaplain; and William J. Laughner, historian.

The name of this chapter was chosen not only because of the pre-eminence of General Arthur St. Clair among the American Colonies and later the United States of America, but because of his identification with Westmoreland County. He was a resident of Westmoreland County from about 1765 until 1818, the year of his death. This period of time embraced his entire career as a national figure as well as a man of importance in Westmoreland County. He owned and operated a mill and an iron furnace in Ligonier Township, having acquired a great deal of land. He was Westmoreland County's first Prothonotary, Register of Wills and Recorder of Deeds as well as one of its first Justices. The Hannastown Resolves, or as the writer prefers to call it, Westmoreland's Little Declaration of Independence, which was adopted a year before the Declaration of Independence, was written chiefly by Arthur St. Clair. In fact, this declaration was adopted before any of the other similar declarations in the colonies such as the Mechlenburg, Pittsburgh and Hanover Declarations. Arthur St. Clair is buried in the old St. Clair Cemetery in Greensburg.

The institution dinner was held at the Zion's Lutheran Church in Greensburg on March 21, 1947, with a large number of representatives of patriotic and other organizations present. The chapter officers were installed by Charles B. Shaler and addresses were delivered by Hon. Harry A. Estep, president of the Pittsburgh chapter; and William T. Dom III, president of the Arthur St. Clair Chapter.

The names of the members appearing on the charter are as follows:

Paul James Abraham
Ernest Burrell Albright
Harry Melvin Albright
Elmer E. Allshouse
John Steel Anderson
Ronald Philip Baab
Paul S. Bair
Thomas McL. Baldridge

Donald Hartley Bates
Jack Hartley Bates
Robert Edward Best
John Black
Arthur Byron Blackburn
Edward Cribbs Brinker
Joseph Jennings Bryan

The history of Westmoreland County is rich in historical events and the General Arthur St. Clair Chapter at various times has participated in commemorating these events. The Chapter has had several meetings at Bushy Run and at Fort Ligonier, the restoration of which fort by the Fort Ligonier Memorial Foundation has been supported by the Chapter both by financial contributions and its activities. The Chapter was prominent in the program of the dedication of the partially reconstructed fort on October 12, 1954 when Governor John S. Fine delivered the dedicatory address. On Constitution Day, 1953, the Chapter held a meeting within the stockade of the fort, attended by the public in general, at which Past President Calvin E. Pollins, made a few appropriate remarks. This was the first ceremony held by any organization in recognition of the fort after the beginning of its restoration.

The committee for marking Revolutionary War graves has recently been quite active and is securing markers for the graves of Captain Samuel Miller and seven soldiers who were ambushed and killed near Fort Hand during the Revolutionary War. These eight persons were buried where they fell. During the year 1955, five additional Revolutionary graves were marked with government head-stones through the efforts of the committee in securing the necessary data and the co-operation of the County Commissioners in setting the markers. J. Paul Harman, a charter member of St. Clair Chapter was the principal speaker at the Constitution Day Celebration on the battlefield of Bushy Run.

In 1949 the Chapter was militant in its position on socialized medicine during an impending bill in Congress to promulgate such a plan. It's resolution against socialized medicine drawn by the Chapter's Chancellor, was submitted to the President of the United States, Pennsylvania's two Senators as well as Westmoreland County's Congressman. On other occasions the Chapter has been enterprising in either defeating or supporting legislation and other governmental activities. General membership meetings are held four times a year, the occasions being Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Constitution Day and Thanksgiving.

Names of the past presidents of the Arthur St. Clair Chapter are: 1947 and 1948, William T. Dom, III; 1949, Harry R. Hummer; 1950 and 1951, Calvin E. Pollins; 1952, Harry C. Cope; 1953, Calvin E. Pollins; 1954, Harry R. Hummer.

The elected officers for the year 1955 are as follows: Harry R. Hummer, president; Bert Ober, vice president; John Rial, treasurer; Frank E. Maddocks, Secretary; J. Elder Steele, chaplain; Richard D. Laird, chancellor; James Gregg, Jr., historian; and William J. Laughner, registrar.

The president and secretary elected for the year 1956 at the annual meeting held at the Court House on November 30, 1955 are: president, Harry R. Hummer, 621 Spring Street, Latrobe, Pa.; secretary, Frank E. Maddocks, 351 Harrison Avenue, Greensburg, Pa.

SHENANGO CHAPTER

SHARON, PA.

(Inactive)

A chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution was organized at Sharon, Mercer County, Pa., during the year 1915, and named the Shenango Chapter.

The first officers selected to serve this chapter were as follows: Andrew C. McLean, president; George E. Boyd, vice president; Guy Thorne, secretary; William D. McCartney, treasurer; Leroy D. Runser, registrar; and William A. McCormick, historian.

The chapter's name was from the Shenango Creek which rises in Crawford County and flows into Mahoning River in Beaver County. Mercer County was formed in 1800, and named in honor of General Hugh Mercer, who took an active part in the French and Indian War and fell mortally wounded at the Battle of Princeton in 1777, as a brigadier-general in the Continental Army.

The city of Sharon was laid out in 1815, and named for Sharon in Palestine. It was incorporated as a city in 1841, and owes its rapid growth and present prosperity to the great iron industry established there.

The Board of Management of the Society at their meeting of February 10, 1916, granted a charter to the Shenango Chapter. The names of the charter members are not available.

The names of the past presidents of the Shenango Chapter at Sharon are as follows: 1915, Andrew C. McLean; 1916, 1917, 1918, 1919, 1920, 1921, and 1922, George H. Allen; 1923, 1924, 1925, and 1926, Fred A. Service; 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930, 1931, 1932, and 1933, C. H. Pearson.

This chapter becoming inactive the Board of Managers considered cancelling the charter at their meeting of February 22, 1933, and at their meeting of February 22, 1934, took action to officially cancel the charter. The name Shenango was selected in 1949 by a chapter with headquarters at Meadville, Crawford County.

SHENANGO CHAPTER

MEADVILLE, PA.

The Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, granted a charter to a group of compatriots residing at Meadville, Crawford County, and vicinity, who in 1940, formed an organization known as the Meadville Chapter and elected the following as their first officers: Raymond E. This chapter selected for its name the town of Meadville, County seat of Crawford County, which was settled in 1788, by David Mead. The members of the Meadville Chapter later desired to change the name of their chapter to Shenango which was authorized by the Board of Management of the Society on March 10, 1949.

The institution dinner was held at the Kepler Hotel, Meadville, on December 6, 1940, with Harbaugh Miller as the installing officer. The names appearing on the charter as the charter members are not available.

SOMERSET COUNTY CHAPTER

SOMERSET, PA.

PIERCE MILLER

Chapter Historian

The minutes of the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, of February 14, 1946, state that a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution would be organized at Somerset, county seat of Somerset County, on March 28, 1946.

The names of the first officers elected to serve this chapter are: Oscar F. Sutcliffe, president; Charles L. Shaffer, first vice president; Ralph A. Poorbaugh, second vice president; C. C. Shaffer, third vice-president; Robert L. Miller, fourth vice president; George S. Speicher, Jr., fifth vice president; Howard R. Boose, Jr., secretary-treasurer; and Henry B. Reiley, genealogist.

The name selected to designate the Somerset County chapter was to commemorate the town and county in which the members resided. An historical sketch of Somerset County during the Colonial and Revolutionary period, as printed in the program for the institution dinner, states that "No record exists as to when a white man first set foot in what is now Somerset County. The earliest known entry was by Christopher Gist, a scout and trader during the period as early as the French and Indian War. At that period all of what is now Somerset County was a part of the county of Cumberland which was erected into a political subdivision in 1750 and it was not until March 6, 1771, that Bedford County was subdivided from the parent county, Cumberland, and then embraced practically all of southwestern Pennsylvania. Somerset County separated from its mother county, Bedford, April 17, 1795, and it then embraced the southern portion of what is now Cambria County but excluded that portion of the present area lying east of the crest of the Alleghenies.

"The struggle between France and Great Britain terminated in the fall and capture of Fort Duquesne at the junction of the Allegheny and the Ohio Rivers, the present site of the City of Pittsburgh, and the territory now know as Somerset County lay directly in the path of the military operations of the mother country, and the colonies in their efforts to dispute the claim of the French to that vast empire lying west of the Allegheny mountains and reaching from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

"Three great military roads marked the passage of the armies from the east and opened the way to later settlement of the country. These roads with their approximate locations (known by more familiar names) were Braddock's Road, now the National Highway, the Forbes Road, now the Lincoln Highway, and the Great Road through the Glades, now partially used as Highway Route No. 31.

"Four distinct groups of pioneers settled in what is now Somerset County following the treaty of Fort Stanwix in 1768. The largest group was from the Palatinate and adjoining territory, who were Protestant (Huguenot) in religious faith, and settlements were made through the Stonycreek glades, Brothers Valley region, also in Elk Lick, Conemaugh, Jenner and Somerset Townships, as now known. As early as the spring of 1770, other groups came from Essex and Morris counties in New Jersey and settled in the vicinity of Ursina and the Turkeyfoot region. These were the Colburns, the Brookes, the Kings, the Drakes, the Mitchells, the Tannehills, the Rushs, the Moons and many others. Following the Revolutionary War a number of Welsh, English and Irish Quakers settled in Jenner Township from the Quemahoning dam to the foot of the Laurel mountains. The fourth and smallest group about the same time settled at the foot of the Laurel Hill mountains in Jenner and Conemaugh Townships being Irish-Catholic, bearing such names as O'Connor, Cole, McAnulty, Forrest and Nitch.

"Names associated with the early history and settlement of what is now Somerset County are Christopher Gist, the Indian Chief Nema-colin, Philip Wagerlein, Harmon Husband and Andrew Friend. The original proprietors of Somerset Borough were Adam Schneider, a German, and Peter Ankeny, a Huguenot, who laid out the original town as early as 1795. It was incorporated as a borough in 1804 and one of the original incorporators was Captain John Webster, an officer under General Washington and a member of the Order of the Cincinnati."

The institution dinner of the Somerset County chapter was held at the Methodist Church on March 28, 1946, in charge of Charles B. Shaler, president of the Pennsylvania Society, as toastmaster, and with Smith L. Multer, president general of the national society, as installing officer. The address was delivered by Eugene C. Bonniwell, national trustee representing the Pennsylvania Society. Many distinguished guests representing other patriotic and civic organizations were present.

The town was the site of Chingleclamouch's Old Town, which, during the first half of the eighteenth century, was the most considerable Indian town on the West Branch of the Susquehanna River. Chingleclamouch, or Chinklacamoose, signifying "At the quiet hill", was the name of a famous Indian who once dwelt there. An open spot on the river bank, where the buffaloes formerly cleared large tracts of undergrowth, became known as cleared fields, and then as Clearfield.

The institution dinner for the Susquehanna Chapter was held at the Hotel Dimeling, Clearfield, on October 15, 1938, with Paul R. Ruch as the installing officer, and John S. Fisher, president of the Pennsylvania Society, delivering the main address. The attendance included one hundred members and guests, representing patriotic and civic organization.

TIADAGHTON CHAPTER

WILLIAMSPORT, PA.

ARLAND LOWELL BOSTWICK

Chapter Historian

In the year 1950, a former member of the Captain John Brady Chapter which had been in existence in Williamsport, Lycoming County, from 1930 to 1934, and several members of the William Maclay Chapter of Sunbury, residents of Williamsport and vicinity, joined in an effort with others to organize a new chapter at Williamsport, county seat of Lycoming County.

After several preliminary meetings in the James V. Brown Memorial Library, Lycoming County Court House and private Chambers of the Hon. Charles Scott Williams, on April 7, 1951, at a dinner meeting in the Main Dining Room of the Lycoming Hotel, a new chapter was organized under the name Tiadaghton, at which meeting the following officers were elected: M. Edward Toner, president; C. Edmund Gilmore, first vice president; Charles Scott Williams, second vice president; R. Douglas Steele, third vice president; John R. Kauffman, III, secretary; Samuel M. Carter, treasurer; Marshall R. Anspach, historian; James M. Robinson, assistant secretary; Paul G. Gilmore, chaplain; Philip C. Antes, assistant chaplain; Robert T. Golder, chancellor.

The name selected was Tiadaghton an Indian word meaning Pine Creek, however, authorities differ on the meaning of Tiadaghton. Boyd's Indian Local Names gives the Indian name of Pine Creek as "Cuwen-Kanne" meaning the stream that flows through Pine Trees, hence, Pine Creek. Legend has it that the Susquehannocks which was the Indian tribe in this locality had a chief by the name of Tiadaghton. The accepted version is, however, that the word Tiadaghton as stated before means Pine Creek and both of these terms are used for the large creek that flows through this territory.

The Fair Play men were settlers residing on the west branch of the Susquehanna River, between Lycoming and Pine Creeks or (Tiadaghton Creek) embracing a territory in which their titles had not been established and they held their Courts under this Tiadaghton Elm and elsewhere, notably, Stairs Tavern. Legend has it that these settlers met under the Tiadaghton Elm, which still stands, July 4, 1776 and drafted a Declaration of their Independence which was forwarded to Philadelphia, without the knowledge that on that same day and same year a formal Declaration of Independence had been adopted by the Continental Congress.

The Institution Dinner for the organization of the Tiadaghton Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, was held in the Ballroom of the Lycoming Hotel, Williamsport, Lycoming County, June 23, 1951, when the chapter was formally instituted by John A. Fritchey, II, Registrar General of the National Society, assisted by Myer Solis-Cohen, President of the State Society who installed the newly elected officers. This chapter was organized under Earl N. Schroeder of the Continental Congress Chapter, who was then acting as organization Chairman of the State Society.

The speaker for the occasion was Dr. Eugene P. Bertin, Assistant Director, Pennsylvania State Education Association who gave a very able and stirring address on the "Roots Of The Tiadaghton", an address never to be forgotten by those who heard him.

The charter members consisted of:

Marshall Reid Anspach, Esq.	Clarence Watt Huling, Sr.
Philip Caldwell Antes	Clarence Watt Huling, Jr.
Paul Donald Bailey	Harry Cook Huling
Donals Reeder Baker	Jackson Frederick Huling
Francis Josiah Barrett, Jr.	John Ressler Kauffman, III
Luther Wilson Bitler	George Billich LeVan, Ph.D.
James Clyde Brown	Richard George Lowe
Samuel Miller Carter, D.D.S.	Warren Leslie Marsh
Clement Stewart Coryell	Harold Augustus Neece
James Goodyear Daggett	Hon. Robert Fleming Rich
Col. Arthur Taylor Eaker	James MacLaren Robinson
Harold Richard Eisenbeis	John Wesley Sheffer, Sr.
Albert Roy Flanigan, Jr.	John Wesley Sheffer, Jr.
Arthur Harold Gilmore	LaRue Charles Shempp
Charles Edmund Gilmore, Esq.	George Livingston Stearns, II
Paul George Gilmore	Richard Douglass Steele, A.I.A.
Robert Thomas Golder	Richard James Steele
John Coryell Hayes	Frederick John Tietbohl, II
Edgar Franklin Heffner, Sr.	Matthew Edward Toner, Esq.
Hon. Spencer Willits Hill	Hon. Charles Scott Williams

The names of the past presidents are as follows: 1951 to 1953 inclusive, M. Edward Toner; 1954, Luther W. Bitler.

The first event following the institution meeting was the celebration of Constitution Day, September 17, 1951, with a dinner meeting at the beautiful Womans Club in Williamsport, at which event the wives and other guests were present, and the guest speaker was Dr. Loring B. Priest, head of the Department of History, Lycoming College, Williamsport. About four of these events are held yearly at which the ladies are included, together with an annual picnic at "Marbeth" the country home of the first president, M. Edward Toner.

The only project undertaken to date was the preservation of the original Tiadaghton Elm, which is well over five hundred years old. For this purpose, the service of the Davey Tree Surgeons were sought and several hundred dollars expended, with the sad news the tree is doomed and nothing much can be done to preserve its life. Prior to this effort, the Daughters of the American Revolution, Fort Antes and Colonel Hugh White Chapters of Jersey Shore and Lock Haven respectively, had been made in the effort to save this old patriarch of the forest.

Officers for the year 1955 include: John R. Kauffman, III, president; Paul D. Bailey, first vice president; Arthur T. Eaker, second vice president; Charles S. Williams, third vice president; James M. Robinson, IV, secretary-registrar; LaRue C. Shempp, assistant secretary; Philip C. Antes, treasurer; LeRoy M. Kutz, chaplain; Paul G. Gilmore, assistant chaplain; C. Edmund Gilmore, chancellor; Marshall R. Anspach, historian; Harold A. Neece, genealogist.

The following officers were elected to serve for the year 1956: president, Paul D. Bailey, 937 Park Avenue, Williamsport, Pa.; secretary, LaRue C. Shempp, 924 W. 3rd Street, Williamsport, Pa.

VALLEY FORGE CHAPTER

BETHLEHEM, PA.

IRA M. FRANKENFIELD

Chapter Historian

The minutes of the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, for their meeting of June 4, 1925, state that an application had been received from a group of twenty compatriots to form a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution, at Bethlehem, Northampton County, to be known as the Valley Forge Chapter, for which permission was granted and a charter authorized.

Interest in the formation of a chapter at this locality was explored as early as 1924, and while the original nucleus of the chapter's members came from the Lehigh Valley; Bethlehem, Allentown, Easton, and neighboring communities, the chapter now, with its present membership of about 400, the largest in the state and one of the largest in the United States, draws its members not only from the Lehigh Valley but a great many from the North Penn section up to the very gates of Valley Forge.

The first recorded meeting of this chapter was held on July 22, 1925, when the following temporary officers were selected to serve until the installation of the chapter: H. Oliver Williams, president; Clarence E. Beckel, secretary-treasurer; and Harradon H. Smith, registrar.

The name selected by the members of the Valley Forge chapter was to commemorate the place where General Washington encamped with the Revolutionary Army during the winter of 1777-1778. Here, in a deep rugged hollow at the mouth of Valley Creek, stood an old forge erected before 1759, belonging to Isaac Potts. The old forge at the mouth of Valley Creek, Chester County, has given Valley Forge its name.

The institution dinner for the Valley Forge Chapter was held at the Hotel Bethlehem, Bethlehem, on November 11, 1925, with one hundred and fifty members and guests, including a number of honor guests representing the organization, local civic officials, historical societies and the Daughters of the American Revolution. Rulef C. Schanck, president of the Pennsylvania Society presented the charter and delivered the address for the occasion.

Officers were elected on November 4, 1925, to serve for the first full year, 1926, as follows: Clarence E. Beckel, president; Joseph C. Slough, first vice president; Herbert H. Hess, second vice president; John H. Neumeyer, third vice president; Francis J. G. Duck, secretary;

Valley Forge Chapter holds four regular meetings each year. The annual meeting, as near to November 11 as feasible, is usually held in the home city, Bethlehem. Two other meetings, the February meeting to commemorate Washington's Birthday, and the Spring meeting to commemorate Flag Day, are held in other cities or large meeting places in the district. Allentown, Easton, Norristown, Doylestown, Washington's Crossing Park, Spring Mountain House at Schwenksville, Old Lutheran Church at Trappe, and Ursinus College have been places for these meetings. The fourth meeting, a memorial Service to commemorate the anniversary of the going into winter quarters of the Continental Army at Valley Forge in 1777, is held at some church or chapel in late Fall. There seems to be a two-fold value in this type of scattered meetings, first it affords more members of so large a district to attend the meetings, and second it gives the chapter an opportunity to acquaint more communities with the work of the chapter and the ideals for which it stands.

The social intercourse afforded by these meetings has been of great value in promoting good feeling among the members of the chapter. An even greater value of the programs at these meetings for the members and the communities in which the meetings have been held, has been the part they had in keeping alive the patriotic spirit and to perpetuate the memory of the heroic sacrifices of the men who achieved American Independence.

The records of Valley Forge Chapter show that it has been active in collecting and preserving the records, memorials, traditions and relics relating to the War of the Revolution. It has placed markers on the graves of Revolutionary patriots in many old graveyards and cemeteries. In co-operation with the Pennsylvania Historical Society and other patriotic and historical organizations in its district it has helped to mark many spots of historical significance. Some of these have been: four of the markers which commemorate Sullivan's Expedition against the Iroquois Indians; a marble slab over the crypt of the Unknown Revolutionary soldier on the grounds of the Daughters of the American Revolution house in Bethlehem; a marker on the grave of patriot Frederick Leaser, in Jacksonville, Lehigh County, who with his farm team hauled the Liberty Bell from Philadelphia to Allentown, September, 1777; a marker on a farm about a mile north of Kulpville, Montgomery County, the site where Washington encamped after the battle of Germantown.

The chapter had done some work in the presentation of Good Citizenship medals to outstanding students of high schools. It has awarded Reserve Officers Training Corps medals to outstanding students in these organizations at Lehigh and Lafayette colleges.

The chapter has also been active in the preservation and transcription of old church, burial, court, and civic records so that such records might be more available to this and future generations. Complete and readily available files of this information have been placed in the Bethlehem and Easton public libraries. This was largely the work of the late Clarence E. Beckel, for many years registrar of Valley Forge Chapter.

The names of the past presidents of Valley Forge Chapter are as follows: 1925, H. Oliver Williams; 1926, Clarence E. Beckel; 1927, William S. Hutchinson; 1928, Charles A. Heckman; 1929, William J. ## GEORGE WASHINGTON CHAPTER

WASHINGTON, PA.

A petition signed by twenty prospective members residing in Washington, Pa., was presented to the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, at their meeting on June 5, 1924, requesting permission to organize a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution, to be called the Washington Chapter which was granted.

A preliminary meeting had been held at Washington on February 15, 1924, attended by R. S. Schanck, president of the Pennsylvania Society and members of the Board of Management when the manner of organizing a chapter was explained followed by the election of the temporary officers: A. M. Linn, president; C. L. McKee, secretary; and Charles E. Wrenshall, treasurer.

This chapter was instituted with the following first officers: S. Murray Pollock, president; J. Winfield Reed, vice president; James N. Doak, secretary; Aaron K. Lyle, treasurer; Boyd E. Warne, registrar; C. L. McKee, chaplain; and Harry M. Hall, historian. The names appearing on the charter are not available.

On April 17, 1927, the Board authorized a change in the name of the chapter to the George Washington Chapter and this chapter is now the third oldest in the Pennsylvania Society.

Washington County, Pa., of which the borough of Washington is the county seat, was formed on March 28, 1781, the first Pennsylvania County formed after the Declaration of Independence and the only one organized during the Revolutionary period. It was probably the first or one of the first localities to be named in honor of George Washington, who as commander-in-chief of the Revolutionary forces, was at the height of his military fame.

The names of the past presidents are: 1924, A. M. Linn; 1925 to 1931 inclusive, Samuel M. Pollock; 1932 to 1937 inclusive, Robert B. South; 1938 to 1941 inclusive, James K. Warne; 1942, William R. Denison; 1943 to 1947 inclusive, J. Winfield Reed; 1948 to 1954 inclusive, Charles M. Ewing.

The officers elected for the year 1955 will continue for the year 1956, and are as follows; president, Charles M. Ewing, 219 East Wheeling Street, Washington, Pa., and secretary, Charles E. Lowrey, 115 Church Street, Washington, Pa.

WAYNE CHAPTER

ERIE, PA.

(Inactive)

In 1903, when the Pennsylvania Society's Year Book was published it listed but three active chapters in the state one of which was the Wayne Chapter at Erie with eleven members. This chapter is listed as the oldest of the three chapters in existence at that time, the other two being the New Castle and the Philadelphia Chapters.

The Society's minutes record the year of organization of the Wayne Chapter as being 1899 and the first officers as follows: David N. Dennis, president; John W. Little, vice president; George Burton, secretary; William Spencer, treasurer; Douglas Benson, registrar; Charles S. Clarke, historian.

Apparently this chapter was named to honor the memory of Anthony Wayne, soldier, who was born at Easton, January 1, 1745. In 1775 he raised a regiment with which he took part in the campaign against Canada and in 1779, as a brigadier-general he achieved the most brilliant of American victories in the storming of Stony Point. His achievements as a soldier was well known to residents of Western Pennsylvania as in 1793, as commander-in-chief of the United States Army he defeated the Indians at Fallen Timbers.

The names of the charter members of the Wayne Chapter are not available.

The annual report of the Pennsylvania Society dated February 22, 1916, lists the president of the Wayne Chapter as David N. Dennis and possibly he was the only member to serve the chapter as president during its existence. The records do not indicate when the charter was revoked or cancelled.

In 1939 interest in having an active chapter at Erie was renewed and a charter was granted to the Erie Chapter, and the name General Anthony Wayne was selected by a chapter at Beaver Falls.

GENERAL ANTHONY WAYNE CHAPTER

BEAVER FALLS, PA.

JOHN H. HOGREFE

Chapter Historian

Following the termination of a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution at Ambridge in 1937, interest was aroused in the establishment of another chapter at Beaver Falls and members who had held membership in the extinct chapter became affiliated with a new chapter at Beaver Falls, known as the Beaver Valley Chapter but later named the General Anthony Wayne Chapter.

The new chapter was instituted at Heath Manor, home of Clifford H. Beegle at Patterson Heights, Beaver Falls, on June 15, 1939, by William T. Aiken as the installing officer and John S. Fisher, president of the Pennsylvania Society, as the speaker for the occasion.

Previous to the institution meeting an organization meeting had been held at the Brodhead Hotel in Beaver Falls when the following named first officers were elected: Myron E. Rowley, president; Clifford H. Beegle, first vice president; George H. Kelley, second vice president-chancellor; Archie Dean Dungan, third vice president; Mortimer S. Ashton, secretary-treasurer-chaplain; Clair L. Bloom, registrar; William D. Crawford, genealogist; and Frank E. Reader, historian. Additional members to the Board of Managers: J. A. C. Ruffner, Jr., Charles N. Ramsey, S. Warren Lyons, Ira H. Todd, William D. Crawford, William B. Brown, and George F. MacDonald.

The chapter at Beaver Falls selected the name of General Anthony Wayne in order to honor this distinguished Revolutionary brigadier-general as previously immemorialized by the Wayne Chapter at Erie during its existence as a chapter from 1903 to 1916. General Wayne became well known to residents of Western Pennsylvania as his achievements are part of the history of that region. In 1792, he was made commander-in-chief of the United States Army and in 1793, he commanded the forces against the Indians in Ohio, whom he finally defeated at Fallen Timbers and forced them to conclude the treaty of Greenville in 1795, which gave a large tract of territory to the United States.

Beaver Falls, in Beaver County, was laid out about 1800, and was called Brighton. In 1866, the Harmony Society, which had purchased the land adjacent to Brighton, greatly enlarging the plan of the town by extending it for three miles along the Beaver River, and named it Beaver Falls because of the falls in the River at this point.

The names of the charter members of the General Anthony Wayne chapter are:

YORK CHAPTER

YORK, PA.

(Inactive)

The Society's minutes for October 6, 1927, state that a petition was received by the Board of Management for permission to organize a chapter at York, Pa. The minutes of the following meeting December 7, 1928, authorize the issuing of a charter for a chapter to be known as the York chapter.

The first officers to serve this chapter were: A. M. Owen, president; George Hummel, vice president; H. Luke Owen, secretary; George Kindig, Sr., treasurer; Russell Wehler, registrar.

The name selected to designate the chapter was in recognition of the city in which headquarters were located and the majority of the members resided. The town of York was laid out in October, 1741, by order of the Penn Heirs, while that area was still part of Lancaster County. When the county of York was formed in 1749 the town of York became the county seat, and when the Continental Congress met there in 1777, it contained about a thousand people, mostly of German descent.

The names of the charter members are not available.

The only member's name to appear on the records as having served as president of the York Chapter is that of A. M. Owen.

The chapter became inactive and its charter was officially cancelled by action of the Society on February 22, 1934.

Interest in the acquisition of a charter for the city of York was aroused during the year 1949, resulting in the formation of the Continental Congress Chapter.

YOUGHIOGHENY CHAPTER

CONNELLVILLE, PA.

ARTHUR P. FREED

Chapter Historian

The earliest mention of the Youghioghenny Chapter at Connellsville, Pa., is found in the minutes of the Board of Management, Pennsylvania Society, when the Board was advised that the chapter would be instituted on June 27, 1946.

Interest in the formation of a chapter at Connellsville was aroused through the work of a small group of patriotic men who were encouraged to do so by their wives who were members of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Preliminary meetings were held and the following temporary officers were elected to form the organization: William H. Soisson, Jr., president; and William S. Anderson, secretary.

The name selected to designate this chapter was the name of the river which flows through the town of Connellsville, Fayette County, and was named by the Indians who called it Yaw-yaw-ganey, which meant four rapid streams, referring to the streams which converge a few miles east of Connellsville at Confluence town in the Allegheny Mountains. These streams form the pattern of a turkey foot and that area was known to the early settlers as Turkey Foot Section.

The institution of the Youghioghenny Chapter was held in the recreation room of the Evangelical United Brethern Church at Connellsville on June 27, 1946, with Clifton P. Clark as the installing officer, and an address by Harry A. Estep.

The officers installed to serve this chapter during its first year were: William H. Soisson, Jr., president; Arthur A. Brown, first vice president; Carl D. Lauffer, second vice president; Willis C.
